Validating Second Language Reading Examinations Rachel Yi-fen Wu, 2014-09-25 Validating Second Language Reading Examinations describes the development of an empirical framework for test validation and comparison of reading tests at different proficiency levels through a critical evaluation of alignment with the Common European Framework of Reference CEFR. It focuses on contextual parameters, cognitive processing operations and test results and identifies parameters for the description of different levels of reading proficiency examinations. The volume explores procedures for linking tests to the CEFR and proposes both qualitative and quantitative methods that complement the procedures recommended in the Council of Europe's Relating Language Examinations to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEFR A Manual piloted in 2003 and revised 2009. Key features of the book include a detailed review of the literature on CEFR alignment, vertical scaling, test specifications and test comparability, a comprehensive and coherent approach to the validation of reading tests, an accessible and systematic description of procedures for collecting validity evidence based on a sound theoretical framework, a case study comparing different testing systems targeting the same CEFR level. A Modular Approach to Testing English Language Skills Roger Hawkey, 2004. Documents the development of the Cambridge ESOL Certificates in English Language Skills CELS, a suite of modular examinations first offered in 2002. As a context for how CELS was conceived, developed, constructed, validated and managed, the book traces the history of exams which have influenced CELS. The Royal Society of Arts (RSA), later UCLES (University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate), Communicative Use of English as a Foreign Language examinations (CUEFL) was one such influence, as were the Certificates in Communication Skills in English (CCSE), these exams being a development of the CUEFL. The University of Oxford Delegacy of Local Examinations (UODLE) examinations, taken over by UCLES in 1995, were a further influence on CELS. UODLE itself had worked in partnership with the Association of Recognised Language Schools (ARELS) Examinations Trust, the Oxford EFL reading and writing exams for many years offered in tandem with the ARELS Oral English exams.
