HILLARY CLINTON TO RETIRE: "EXHAUSTED" FINANCIALLY, EMOTIONALLY, SAYS BILL

By EMMA WRATHIN

WASHINGTON — Having once seemed so privileged it was likened to a coronation, the candidacy of Hillary Rodham Clinton, the nation's would-be first female president, came to a spluttering end yesterday with donors and party leadership splitting openly in the wake of Tuesday's crushing defeat, unable to fathom what went wrong — again.

Reports of grotesque oversteering, internal dysfunction and ethical lapses dog every political endeavor Ms. Clinton undertakes, but most recent campaign was no exception. In February leaked fundraising memos showed donations crisscrossing. Vice chairwoman and Muslim Brotherhood operative Huma Abedin left the campaign in March amid new allegations of misconduct by husband and chronic daily-wire fodder Anthony Weiner. But it was Ms. Clinton's clamped speech during an April fundraiser that would prove most costly. Debbie Wasserman Schultz, DNC chairwoman and spin-prism survivor, cancelled all future DNC events in favor of Abolish Times, pre-recorded segments featuring Ms. Clinton in a kiddie pool fielding questions from heavily-vetted Hispanic toddlers. Even then controversy erupted, when 13-year-old Diego Morales asked Ms. Clinton "Is America a country?" and the Secretary answered, "Did you just put on my leg?"

Former President Bill Clinton, addressing guests at a fund-raiser luncheon at The Clinton Foundation in New York, said of President-elect Trump's historic margin, "Well, we got the turnout we wanted just not the votes. Sure, it's disappointing, but like I told Hillary, in a fair fight she'd win every time. I mean, you folks saw what was going on out there with the emails and the Benghazi crap. People calling her brain-damaged, confused, stupid, saying she's always bullshitting, throwing stuff at my head — give me a break, that only happened one time. Anyway, I'm just so proud of Hillary and the campaign she ran — the old budget fell, it all on the field. Did I say budget? Don't print that."

With a wink and a smile the former president posed the lesson to incommensurate daughter Chelsea who stood glowing in his shadow in Vera Wang couture, channeling the contours for substantiating white rice for the long-grain, Himalayan-grown variety she specified. "Are you out of your mind?," said the underling, frowning. "Loving grain, I said. No say blazes. No say corn. Larger Commodities? Good, now get the some fucking organic rice before I pick up my little whitehouse here and have your entire family murdered."

Afterwards, Ms. Clinton spoke of her mother's legacy. "This woman is like a mother to me. I remember when I was nine or ten, she taught me how to report."

President-elect Donald J. Trump joined supporters at a rally in Washington Square last night.

SCAVINO EMERGES AS POLITICAL POWER BROKER

PRESIDENT OBAMA PENS NEW SELF-VETTING POLICY

By TIM FLOPHEW

WASHINGTON — eager to boost the odds of refugees into the United States from war-torn Syria, and other areas of chaos-ravaged Middle East, President Obama moved to executive order Tuesday a new immigration package that would allow thousands of Muslims deemed to be "deserving" to get a percentage of much-needed U.S. Customs checkpoints to join holiday next year.

Reaction from Republican lawmakers was swift. "This guy is leading," Alabama Congressman Mike Brooks said yesterday. "I'm talking about the 10,000 or so people who are in the Middle East, and you don't even know who they are. The president dropped all the criticism as if he left for a three-week, no-fly, tropical vacation. Look, I know the American people are frustrated and I know it's easy to point the finger at religion. Muslim extremists and say we can't trust these people but we have to. It's the right thing to do. It's who we are."

A second executive order called for the suspension and transfer of all legal immigrants with legal status to provide humanitarian training of targeted refugees.
