Questions

1. How did it feel to walk down the Walk of Fame?
2. How do you think Macbeth may have felt when he returned from battle?
3. With a partner, choose three quotations that give you the most striking images of Macbeth as a warrior. What gives those images their power?
4. Would an audience in Shakespeare's time have responded to the images you chose in a similar way to a modern audience?
5. Using your insights from the activity, how would you answer the questions above? (How does your impression of Macbeth during 1, 3 compare with what you heard about him in 1.1?)

D Exam Practice — Macbeth and Banquo (1.3, 120-150)

- Q Write about the ways in which Shakespeare presents Banquo as a contrast with Macbeth in 1.3, 120-150.

Characters are not people; they exist only within the context of the play. As in Act 1, Scene 1, characters often illuminate each other. Macbeth is intrigued by the "supernatural soliciting", but Banquo thinks the witches are evil "instruments of darkness" who could "betray's in deepest consequence".

Response to characters and events:

- Macbeth and Banquo are both heroic soldiers, but while Banquo receives only praise, Macbeth is made a shane. Which of the two would you expect to side loyal to his king?
- Both characters challenge the weird sisters but have contrasting reactions to them. Which words show how the reactions of the two characters differ?

Language, Structure, and Form:

- Macbeth's real thoughts are shown only through soliloquies. Why does he not share his thoughts with Banquo? What difference does that make to the way his audience responds to Macbeth?

Context and Ideas:

- Banquo suggests Macbeth might be "enraged" to want the crown. Why might issues of kingship have been important for Shakespeare's original audience?
