I Must Have That Recipe Corinne Katz, 1992-10 These delectable recipes have been collected over a period of years from the finest restaurants and spas and from the kitchens of leading celebrities Upscale recipes combined with healthful ingredients make this a classic cookbook for the 90s Proceeds from the book's royalties will be donated to the Albert Einstein College of Medicine

When It Tastes Good, It's Done. Mangia! John Tramontana, 2023-07-07 This book is a compilation of recipes I learned from my grandmother Phyllis my mother Joanne and others I developed on my own through numerous iterations over many years It is not a cookbook for specific diets but it is more like a road map that leads you to your own recipe that becomes one of your family favorites I am delighted to share these recipes and I suggest you make additions or subtractions to the recommended spices as you see fit Follow the advice of my nana Taste Johnny taste When it tastes good it's done Mangia

On Food David Schildberger, 2023-06-19 Free thinking unconstrained by facts The book is based on the thesis that we live in a world of abundance full of natural riches and cultural artifacts full of human intellect and powerful technologies Our thinking however is dominated by the opposite the notion of scarcity The limits of nature act as an inevitable necessity In his book David Schildberger adopts a novel approach to the subject of resources with the help of intelligent instruments that introduce new foods such as chocolate made from cocoa cell cultures and even a fruit bearing vine raised far from a vineyard With his imagined scenarios the author invites the reader to dare stretch their intellectual imaginations and ultimately presents nature as a contingent Conceptual models on the subject of nature and alternative ways of producing food Recommended reading for architectural IT specialists New volume in the Applied Virtuality Book Series

The Food Pusher's Cookbook Rick Melfi, 2011-06 It wasn't until I was a student at the Culinary Institute of America in the late 1970s that I first realized that growing up as a first generation Italian American family in the Bronx and New Jersey wasn't as typical as I had thought My parents and their parents were all born and raised in Italy Throughout my youth and beyond my father and mother referred to their five children four boys and a girl by the number in the order of which we were born To this day my mother still occasionally refers to me as Number Two Son But when it came to hanging around the kitchen I was definitely the number one pest I was the little punk kid always by my mother's side as she was cooking or baking I would jockey for position wherever my mother moved stand on a kitchen chair up against the stove and otherwise constantly be in her way as I tried to get a better look at whatever was being done Same when either of the grandmothers Nona Lisa or Grandma Melfi or other relatives were there Maybe it was something in the water around Pisa but I suspect it s a genetic condition For my mother her mother cousins aunts and countless generations before them in this food fueled blood line the world revolved around the kitchen and dining room table Life was not good unless family friends or anyone close to the dinner table was fed to excess ritually seduced with course after course of delicious abundant and temptingly presented food This attitude seemed to pervade all branches of the family but my inspiration and mentor was Maria Gracia Melfi aka Mama Melfi aka The Food Pusher Cleveland's Fine Restaurants ,1989
