Circular Economy Business Model for Construction Organisations Osamudiamen Otasowie, Clinton Ohis Aigbavboa, Ayodeji Emmanuel Oke, 2025-05-14 This book

takes readers through the process of integrating the circular economy into the business model of construction organizations. It offers not only theory but also a workable implementation plan. This approach guarantees that readers can implement these insights into their construction operations with confidence. It includes in-depth analyses of the circular economy business model and the peculiarities of the construction sector, providing an approach that considers both the opportunities and challenges faced by this sector. In addition, it shows how the circular economy framework can continue to be relevant and adaptable by addressing the current adoption level of the circular economy in construction and preparing readers for new developments. Lastly, the book demonstrates how circular value propositions can be used to implement the circular economy in the construction sector, thus increasing revenue and profits in construction. Psychology in Action Karen

Huffman, Karen Dowdell, Catherine Ashley Sanderson, 2017 Revised edition of Psychology in action 2015 Sustainable

Textile and Fashion Value Chains André Matthes, Katja Beyer, Holger Cebulla, Marlen Gabriele Arnold, Anton

Schumann, 2020-10-24 This book illustrates key sustainability issues in global textile and fashion value chains by examining individual types of fibers either at a single step in or along the entire value chain. It approaches sustainability-related issues in the textile and fashion value chain from an interdisciplinary and holistic viewpoint, with each contribution linking questions on the textile and fashion value chain to various drivers, indicators, and concepts of sustainability. Each chapter represents a single step in the textile and fashion value chain, exploring and considering a wide range of interwoven and interdependent technological, environmental, social, political, and economic aspects. Various fibers, textile engineering, and chemical treatment steps, as well as innovative business concepts and regulatory frameworks across the entire textile and fashion value chain, are identified, analyzed, discussed, and critically evaluated. The book provides a systematic overview of the potential and challenges of sustainable textile and fashion value chains, making it of interest to practitioners and scientists in sustainability, science, environmental economics, and business management and innovation. Further, it offers a valuable source of information for industrial and mechanical engineering researchers and for students in the areas of textile engineering, fashion, or the apparel and clothing industry. Metaphor and the Dynamics of Knowledge Sabine Maasen, Peter Weingart, 2013-01-11 This book opens up a new route to the study of knowledge dynamics and the sociology of knowledge. The focus is on the role of metaphors as powerful catalysts, and the book dissects their role in the construction of theories of knowledge. It is of vital interest to social and cognitive scientists alike. A Companion to Bonaventure Jay Hammond, Wayne Hellmann, Jared

Goff, 2013-10-31 Although Bonaventurian scholarship has seen a great expansion in the past forty years, there remains no

English volume that provides a general yet detailed study of Bonaventure for scholars. The Companion to Bonaventure provides an invaluable guide to understanding him. Together, the essays deliver a critical overview of the current research, the major themes in Bonaventure's life and writings, and how they are being reinterpreted at the start of the twenty-first century.

As a great 13th-century scholastic luminary, Bonaventure exists as a vital contributor to the early Franciscan movement that swept across the theological and spiritual landscape of the High Middle Ages The paradoxical simplicity and complexity of Bonaventure's synthesis has made and will continue to provide a profound contributions to Franciscan and Christian reflection This Companion will help in understanding why this is the case Contributors include Joshua Benson Jacques Bougerol Ilia Delio Christopher Cullen Jared Goff Jay M Hammond Zachary Hayes J A Wayne Hellmann Kevin L Hughes Timothy J Johnson David Keck Gregory LaNave Pietro Maranesi Dominic V Monti and Marianne Schlosser Spaces for Creativity and Innovation Within and Across Organizational Boundaries Amalya L. Oliver, Jörg Sydow, Patrick Cohendet, 2025-04-07 This volume contains an Open Access chapter Delving into how creativity and innovation with new knowledge products or processes takes place while crossing organizational boundaries into in between spaces chapters showcase new organizational theoretical approaches that emerge from social interaction spaces Purpose in Life Kendall Cotton Bronk, 2013-09-04 This volume integrates and makes sense of the growing body of theoretical and empirical research conducted on purpose across the lifespan It opens with a comprehensive yet detailed discussion of the definitions of purpose most commonly used in studies on the topic In addition to defining the construct the author also discusses its philosophical roots and distinguishes it from related concepts including meaning goals and ultimate concerns This volume discusses the disparate perspectives on the construct and addresses the tendency to position purpose in the broader frame of positive psychology It synthesizes distinct strands of research on purpose across the lifespan it explores studies on the daily and longer term experience of a purposeful existence and it delves deeply into the wide range of measurement tools that have been used to assess the purpose construct Further it examines the prevalence and forms of purpose among diverse groups of youth and discusses the developmental trajectory of the construct Other topics discussed include the central role of purpose in supporting optimal well being and positive youth development The book closes with empirically supported steps adults educators and mentors can take to effectively and intentionally foster purpose among young people and makes recommendations for future research on the topic Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing Betty Rolling Ferrell, Judith A. Paice, 2019-03-04 The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing remains the most comprehensive treatise on the art and science of palliative care nursing available Dr Betty Rolling Ferrell and Dr Judith A Paice have invited 162 nursing experts to contribute 76 chapters addressing the physical psychological social and spiritual needs pertinent to the successful palliative care team Organized within 7 Sections this new edition covers the gamut of principles of care from the time of initial diagnosis of a serious illness to the end of a patient's life and beyond This fifth edition features several new chapters including chapters on advance care planning organ donation self care global palliative care and the ethos of palliative nursing Each chapter is rich with tables and figures case examples for improved learning and a strong evidence based practice to support the highest quality of care The book offers a valuable and practical resource for students and clinicians across all settings of care The content is relevant for specialty hospice agencies and palliative care programs as well as generalist knowledge for schools of nursing oncology critical care and pediatric Developed with the intention of emphasizing the need to extend palliative care beyond the specialty to be integrated in all settings and by all clinicians caring for the seriously ill this new edition will continue to serve as the cornerstone of palliative care education Nietzsche's Philosophy of Life Affirmation Michael J. McNeal, 2024-12-23 This anthology broadly examines the interrelated roles of art science and experimentation in Nietzsche's philosophical project It is divided into two parts the first organized around the theme of experimentally reconceiving our world the second investigating the aforementioned subjects in Nietzsche's free spirit or middle period works Together the essays comprising the book underscore Nietzsche's concern that experimentation with values ultimately provide humankind with a new wherefore or purpose Wide ranging in its scope this volume brings together a diverse group of scholars working in both the analytic and continental traditions to provide original insights into Nietzsche's thought A unique contribution to the scholarship it deepens understanding of the relationship between Nietzsche's critiques of art and science the role this relationship plays in his futural thought and the experimental life affirming practices that his free spirit project may enable toward the transfiguration of humankind Interactive Staff Training Patrick W. Corrigan, Stanley G. McCracken, 2013-11-11 Health workers who provide services to persons with severe mental illness are frequently under enormous stress burnout is common Alleviating such stress is the objective of Interactive Staff Training The book provides rehabilitation and mental health professionals with a strategy to help them and their colleagues work as a well integrated team This strategy has been implemented in teams serving more than 10 000 persons with psychiatric disabilities The text combines a careful description of the central theory behind the strategy with plenty of clinical anecdotes that illustrate its practical everyday benefits The Philosophy of Spirituality Heather Salazar, Roderick Nicholls, 2018-11-05 The essays in The Philosophy of Spirituality explore a new field in philosophy Until recently most philosophers in the analytic and continental Western traditions treated spirituality as a religious concept Any non religious spirituality tended to be neglected or dismissed as irremediably vague Here from various philosophical and cultural perspectives it is addressed as a subject of independent interest This is a philosophical response to increasing numbers of spiritual but not religious people inhabiting secular societies and the heightened interaction between a multitude of spiritual traditions in a globalized age A provocative array of approaches African Indigenous Indian Stoic and Sufic perspectives as well as Western analytic and continental views offer fresh insights many articulated by emerging voices Contributors are Mariapaola Bergomi Moses Biney Christopher Braddock Drew Chastain Kerem Eksen Nikolay Milkov Roderick Nicholls Jerry Piven Heather Salazar Eric Steinhart Richard White Mark Wynn and Eric Yang Encyclopaedia of the History of Science, Technology, and Medicine in Non-Western Cultures Helaine Selin, 2013-11-11 The Encyclopaedia fills a gap in both the history of science and in cultural studies Reference works on other cultures tend either to omit science completely or pay little attention to it and those on the history of science almost always start with the Greeks with perhaps a mention of the Islamic world as a trans lator of Greek scientific works The purpose of the Encyclopaedia is to bring together knowledge of many disparate fields in one place and to legitimize the study of other cultures science Our aim is not to claim the superiority of other cultures but to engage in a mutual exchange of ideas The Western academic divisions of science technology and medicine have been united in the Encyclopaedia because in ancient cultures these disciplines were connected This work contributes to redressing the balance in the number of reference works devoted to the study of Western science and encourages awareness of cultural diversity The Encyclopaedia is the first compilation of this sort and it is testimony both to the earlier Eurocentric view of academia as well as to the widened vision of today There is nothing that crosses disciplinary and geographic boundaries dealing with both scientific and philosophical issues to the extent that this work does xi PERSONAL NOTE FROM THE EDITOR Many years ago I taught African history at a secondary school in Central Africa
