Schools Making A Difference Thrupp, Martin, 1999-05-01 Does an effective school really come about through the actions of teachers and school leaders or does it also require an advantaged student intake This question reflects a longstanding research debate about whether or not the social class mix of a school's student intake has much effect on individual achievement Schools Making a Difference Let's Be Realistic presents new evidence which suggests that school mix is likely to be important because of the way many school processes are deeply influenced by student intake characteristics Low socioeconomic schools face numerous intake related constraints which make them highly resistant to improvement efforts By suggesting that failing schools are often overwhelmed rather than ineffective this book provides a sympathetic reappraisal of the performance of teachers and school leaders in such schools It also offers a critical response to the often unrealistic claims of the school effectiveness and school improvement movement and a fresh critique of market reforms in education

Cowley,2019-05-16 The Wellbeing Toolkit is an invaluable resource for promoting wellbeing and resilience among all school staff thereby improving staff attendance and retention and helping all teachers fall back in love with teaching In this thought provoking book Andrew Cowley co founder of Healthy Toolkit HealthyToolkit draws on his own experiences as a school leader to unpick the myths around wellbeing and set out a practical authentic and values driven model that will enable leaders to foster a positive atmosphere for the benefit of the whole school community With a focus on developing a culture of positivity and self care effectively enabling all staff members to take ownership of the wellbeing strategy and supporting and promoting healthy lifestyles this practical guide also considers scenarios arising from potentially more stressful incidents such as a bereavement Staff wellbeing needs to be a strategic consideration for all primary and secondary school leaders not something delivered on an ad hoc basis Emphasis must be placed on really knowing staff what motivates them and what may affect their confidence The Wellbeing Toolkit offers effective strategies for addressing staff wellbeing from a whole school perspective with particular reference to reducing workload managing stress and supporting teachers in challenging circumstances Parents and Teachers Lawrence Green,2025-08-05

Originally published in 1968 this book was for every parent who had ever wondered What goes on in my child s school whom do I ask what do I ask and dare I ask and for every teacher who had ever thought How can I get closer to parents and enlist their aid in what I am trying to teach At the time Lawrence Green was a junior school head teacher with long experience in the deprived areas of a large city and had two children at school His articles on parent teacher cooperation in the magazine Where aroused very wide interest and led to reviews in the national press and appearances on the BBC and ITV Requests for details of his two way reports in which parents were invited to give the school a picture of the child at home were received from all over the world This is a practical and deeply felt book a living illustration of the kind of cooperation which could make the Plowden Report a reality It deals frankly with the difficulties of starting and maintaining links between home and school but describes the kind of success which could be achieved The intention was that it should be read by all who cared about education and wanted to cross the line which too often separated parent and teacher at the time Today it can be read in its historical context Your Mentor
