Nationalism and Conflict Management Eric Taylor Woods, Robert Schertzer, Eric Kaufmann, 2013-09-13 Ethno national conflict is one of the central issues of modern politics Despite the emergence of approaches to managing it from nation building to territorial autonomy in recent years the application of these approaches has been uneven Old conflicts persist and new ones continually emerge The authors of this book contend that what is needed to drive forward the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management is a more nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism The book addresses this issue by linking theories of ethnicity and nationalism to theories of conflict management Its contributors share a common goal of demonstrating that a nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism can beneficially inform conflict management in theory and practice To do so they analyse both hot and cold conflict zones as well as cases that have been important in the development of the most widely used conflict management models The book is aimed at those interested in the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management as well as the study of ethnicity and nationalism It is well suited for undergraduate and advanced research students experts and policy makers This book was originally published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics

Tropical Moist Forest Silviculture and Management Henry Colyear Dawkins,Michael S. Philip,1998 Based on extensive research of the literature and fifty years experience by each author this book provides a highly relevant definitive history of the development of silvicultural systems in tropical moist forest a broad term which encompasses many forest types Much of the information is made widely available for the first time The book demonstrates that sustainable timber production in many of these forests is not only possible but the techniques necessary have been known to foresters for many decades The authors begin by tracing the early history and go on to describe the later more technical phases and the growth of global exploitation Examples from many countries are described in detail considering all aspects including the economic ecological and social implications This book is essential reading for forest managers in the tropics as well as advanced students and researchers in forestry ecology and natural resource management

Island Paradise Melanie A. Murray, 2009 A colonial discourse has perpetuated the literary notion of islands as paradisaical This study explores how the notions of island paradise have been represented in European literature the oral and literary indigenous traditions of the Caribbean and Sri Lanka a colonial literary influence in these islands and the literary experience after independence in these nations Persistent themes of colonial narratives foreground the aesthetic and ignore the workforce in a representation of island space as idealized insular and vulnerable to conquest an ideal space for management and control English landscape has been replicated in islands through literature and in reality the Great House being an ideological symbol of power Island Paradise The Myth investigates how these entrenched notions of paradise which islands have traditionally represented metonymically are contested in the works of four postcolonial authors Jamaica Kincaid Lawrence Scott Romesh Gunasekera and Jean Arasanayagam from the island nations of the Caribbean and Sri Lanka It analyzes texts which focus on gardens island space and houses to examine how these motifs are used to re-vision colonial contested sites This book examines the relationship between landscape and identity and with reference to Homi K Bhabha considers how these writers offer an alternative space for negotiating the ambivalence of hybridity

Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, Yudhishtir Raj Isar, 2007-03-27 In the age of globalization we are no longer home alone Migration brings other worlds into our own just as the global reach of the media transmits our world into the hearts and minds of others Often incommensurate values are crammed together in the same public square Increasingly we all today live in the kind of edge cultures we used to see only on the frontiers of civilizations in places like Hong Kong or Istanbul The resulting frictions and fusions are shaping the soul of the coming world order I can think of no other project with the ambitious scope of defining this emergent reality than The Cultures and Globalization project I can think of no more capable minds than Raj Isar and Helmut Anheier who can pull it off Nathan Gardels Editor in Chief NPQ Global Services Los Angeles Times Syndicate Tribune Media This series represents an innovative approach to the central issues of globalization that phenomenon of such undefined contours Lupwishi Mbuyumba Director of the Observatory of Cultural Policies in Africa The world's cultures and their forms of creation presentation and preservation are deeply affected by globalization in ways that are inadequately documented and understood The Cultures and Globalization Series is designed to fill this void in our knowledge Analyzing the relationship between globalization and cultures is the aim of the Series In each volume leading experts as well as young scholars will track cultural trends connected to globalization throughout the world covering issues ranging from the role of cultural difference in politics and governance to the evolution of the cultural economy and the changing patterns of creativity and artistic expression Each volume will also include an innovative presentation of newly developed indicator suites on cultures and globalization that will be presented in a user friendly form with a high graphics content to facilitate accessibility and understanding Like so many phenomena linked to globalization conflicts over and within the cultural realms crystallize great anxieties and illusions through misplaced assumptions inadequate concepts unwarranted simplifications and instrumental readings The aim here is to marshal evidence from different disciplines and perspectives about the culture conflict and globalization relationships in conceptually sensitive ways

Elements of a Systems Approach to Estuarine Management Alan Potkin, 1989

Resources in Education, 1992

Religion and Politics in South Asia Ali Riaz, 2010-02-26 Religion and religio political forces have become potent influences in the domestic politics of many countries irrespective of geographical location stages of economic growth and systems of governance The growing importance of religion as a marker of identity and a tool of political mobilization is reshaping the political landscape in an unprecedented manner and South Asia which contains the world's largest populations of Muslims and Hindus with significant number of Buddhists is no exception to this fact. This book presents a comprehensive analysis of the interaction of religion and politics in Afghanistan, Bangladesh, India, Nepal, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka. Although the specific circumstances of each country are different, in recent decades religion, political parties, and religious rhetoric have become dominant features of the political scenes in all six countries. The contributors offer a thorough examination of these developments by presenting each country's political system and the socio-economic environment within which the interactions are taking place. The analysis of the various factors influencing the process of the interactions between religion and politics and their impact on the lives of the people of the region and global politics constitute the core of the chapters.
