Kumalo, 2021-08-27 The volume explores and thinks through the process of decolonising the South African higher education system by examining MustFall The text offers theoretical insights from a historical contemporary and multidisciplinary lens while examining the embedded meanings of the university as an institution idea and set of practices to show the shifts and changes that were inaugurated by MustFall along with the historicities that define the university both locally and globally The retro and prospective insights presented in the book surface the crisis of authority that places the university in a state of precarity which is framed in the book as the border The volume proposes the concept of the border recognising its conceptual and analytical dynamism as a generative space that can facilitate new imaginaries and articulations of this social institution the university Serving Higher Purposes Ihron Rensburg, 2020-11-05 Universities of the 21st century and beyond must be about teaching learning research excellence creativity and innovation as much as they must be about enabling the destiny of students communities and nations to realize their potential UJ succeeded in her vision and responsibilities to transform the divisions prejudices and limitations that often restrain the advancement of society The story of UJ's transition to an inclusive diverse dynamic bold and purposeful institution of learning demands to be read by everyone South African African and beyond It is a story of how to be an object rather than the subject of history while dynamically shaping our shared futures laying a solid foundation for future generations to be advocates and architects for social change and cohesion It is a story of courageous and visionary leadership The book offers our nation profound lessons in leadership that should enrich all our efforts to transform institutions in a sustainable way to play a meaningful role in building ONE NATION DR WENDY LUHABE Economic Activist Social Entrepreneur First Chancellor of the University of

Johannesburg Footprints McLean Sibanda, 2021-09-06 Footprints is a captivating story about intellectual property IP. It speaks to its role in society, trade, industry and economy and expounds on the actual meaning of IP. The book lays a solid foundation for innovators, entrepreneurs, businesses and nations to realise their full potential through IP policy, legislation, use and practices. McLean Sibanda shares his personal story together with stories and testimonies of fellow travellers taking us through their journey into the field of IP. He meticulously recounts South Africa's path in transforming the management of IP emanating from publicly financed research and development, R D development of critical human capital and other infrastructure to ensure effective IP commercialisation and technology transfer. Footprints is a timely masterpiece given IP issues in Africa's scramble for Covid 19 vaccines and implementation of the agreement establishing the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA. The book provides strategies of how African countries can use IP and innovation to develop industries to ensure health security and trading of goods that can benefit from the AfCFTA. Narrated through a series of significant moments, Footprints demonstrates the importance of vision, solid foundation, collaboration, champions and intentional steps for economic transformation. With glimpses into how countries such as China and Korea used IP to develop their economies, this book makes a compelling case for embracing IP, increased R D investment, relevant human capital and appropriate use of IP in the development of new products and services necessary for knowledge based and industrialised economies. Footprints is a must read for any academic, aspiring intellectual property scholar, policy maker, economist, development activist, entrepreneur, researcher, innovator, professional and technology transfer specialist. Intellectual property is everywhere around us and impacts our lives. For entrepreneurs and businesses alike, intellectual property is about value creation; it is the insurance you need for when you succeed. McLean Sibanda Proceedings of the 10th Focus Conference (TFC 2023) Manyane Makua, Mariam Akinlolu, Mashango Sithole, Phiwayinkosi Gumede, Cebo Nyondo, Ntombikhona Khuzwayo, Mandlenkosi Mhlongo, 2023-11-03 This is an open access book. The 2023 Focus Conference will focus on Goal Four, Quality Education of the United Nations UN Sustainable Development Goals. SGD Goal Four is seized with providing equal access for all women and men to affordable and quality technical, vocational and tertiary education, including university. Quality education in this context means the ability to function, provide and derive value in society. The theme of the conference is therefore coined as 'The Role of Higher Education in the Attainment of Sustainable Quality Education'. Through this theme, the conference will provide a space for participants to share practical knowledge, experiences and possible solutions to the myriad of problems that confront the higher education sector. Universities are often thought of as ivory towers far removed from the realities that confront global societies. To compound this, higher education is increasingly being questioned for its relevance in providing practical and innovative solutions to existing societal problems. Such questions often navigate around the relevance of the academic programmes being offered, curriculum, the capacity of staff, employability of graduates and generally the ability of these institutions to understand why they exist. Indeed, higher education's role in creating a sustainable future will presumably take on greater importance as the world continues to become increasingly globalised and interdependent Water and Society IV C.A. Brebbia, 2017-08-30 This volume presents papers from the 4th International Conference on Water Agribusiness Water as a human right Water quality Water resources contamination Sanitation and health Water and disaster management Policy and legislation Future water demands Irrigation and water management Management of catchments Groundwater management and conservation Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02-01 In South African higher education the images of dysfunction are everywhere Student protests Violence Police presence Rubber or real bullets Class disruptions Burning tyres Damaged buildings Injury and sometimes death Reports of wholesale corruption Year after year often in the same set of universities the problem of routine instability seems insoluble The financial academic and reputational costs of ongoing dysfunction are high especially for those universities caught up in the never ending struggle to overcome apartheid legacies Any number of explanations have been ventured including a lack of resources shortage of capacity rural location corrupt officials and endemic conflict Corrupted takes a deeper look at dysfunction in an attempt to unravel the root causes in a sample of South African universities At the heart of the problem lies the vexed issue of resources or more pertinently the relationship between resources and power who gets what and why Whatever else it aspires to be commonly a place of teaching learning research and public duty a university in an impoverished community is also a rich concentration of resources around which corrupt staff students and those outside of campus all vie for access Taking a political economic approach Jonathan Jansen describes the daily struggle for institutional resources and offers accessible sensible insights He argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Rather durable solutions would include the depoliticisation of university councils and appointments of academics with integrity and capacity to manage and lead these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly The South African Builder, 1982 ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11, Technology Transfer from South African Technology Stations to Their SME Clients Leisl Joanne Neskakis, 2012-03-15 It is widely held that technology transfer is closely linked to a nation's economic development For this reason the South African government assigned twelve technology stations to support small and medium sized enterprises SME The main aim of these stations is the transfer of technology from the universities where they are housed to the SMEs in scientific areas ranging from biotechnology to agriculture This study delivers a detailed analysis of each technology station and offers an explanation as to why some technology stations are more successful than others This study focuses on the influence of the organizational culture on technology transfer and employs Cultural Theory to analyze categorize and thereby compare the culture types of the organizations being studied A few other interesting discoveries are also made by this study that Grid Group Cultural Theory can be utilized in the methodology of a study to determine the organizational culture of any organization that if the impact of organizational culture on technology transfer can be determined empirically then the impact of organizational culture on other factors can also be determined empirically and that if organizational culture can be used to determine the success of technology transfer then it can probably determine the success of other organizations irrespective of what service that organization provides

The Ambiguous Champion Linda Freeman,1997 The Ambiguous Champion is the First Comprehensive and critical study of Canadian foreign policy towards South Africa Freeman challenges the conventional belief that successive Canadian governments took the high road leading the international struggle against apartheid She shows that Canadian policy like the policy of other Western states was complex ambiguous and contradictory Freeman s approach offers an alternative understanding of the forces shaping Canadian foreign policy Legend has it that Canadian prime ministers from Diefenbaker to Mulroney led the way in the international campaign against the apartheid state in South Africa Yet before Mulroney came to power except on a few occasions in the Commonwealth Canadian prime ministers did little to support the anti apartheid cause While Mulroney did significantly better invoking concrete economic sanctions and tackling Margaret Thatcher within the Commonwealth the policies of his government were compromised and limited the claims made for it excessive The state championed a cause but followed through in a highly ambiguous way Central to the explanation is an exploration of the influence groups within civil society especially the private sector on the formation of state policy Attention is also given to the way which churches trade unions universities anti apartheid groups and the media played in calling for a stronger Canadian policy against apartheid The approach offers an alternative way of understanding how foreign policy is made which goes beyond the South African case The Ambiguous Champion will challenge scholars in Canada and abroad in their analyses of relations with South Africa It is a major contribution to both the history and theory of Canadian foreign policy Unizulu ,1987 AF Press Clips ,1988
