Quasi-Things Tonino Griffero, 2017-03-15 An aesthetic and phenomenological account of feelings In this book Tonino Griffero introduces and analyzes an ontological category he terms quasi things These do not exist fully in the traditional sense as substances or events yet they powerfully act on us and on our states of mind He offers an original approach to the study of emotions regarding them not as inner states of the subject but as atmospheres that is as powers poured out into the lived space we inhabit Griffero first outlines the general and atmospheric characters of quasi things and then considers examples such as pain shame the gaze and twilight which he argues is responsible for penetrating and suggestive moods precisely because of its vagueness With frequent examples from literature and everyday life Quasi Things provides an accessible aesthetic and phenomenological account of feelings based on the paradigm of atmospheres The task of modern phenomenology is to dissolve with the help of corrections and additions the contrasts solidified in the bath of involuntary vital experience thus opening up new horizons of questioning and understanding Tonino Griffero accomplishes this task by carefully ploughing the field of quasi things which I inaugurated This is why the book is worthy of great attention Hermann Schmitz University of Kiel This volume is a significant contribution to the expanding literature on atmospheres Most importantly the book lays the groundwork for the study of quasi things David Seamon editor of Environmental and Architectural Phenomenology Griffero has written a phenomenological exploration of the pre reflective dimensions of experience in the form of a pathetic aesthetics This book rich in originality and insight illuminates an important new direction in the study of pre reflective experience Arnold Berleant founding editor of Contemporary Aesthetics Beyond Beauty Federico Vercellone,2017-07-31 The American abstract expressionist painter Barnett Newman famously declared in 1948 that the impulse of modern art is to destroy beauty Not long after that Andy Warhol was reconciling the world of art with the world of everyday life painting soup cans and soda bottles In this book Federico Vercellone provides an account of the decline of beauty as a Platonic ideal from early German Romanticism to the twentieth century He traces this intellectual trajectory from Goethe Dilthey and Nietzsche through modernism and the avant garde movement to the work of Adorno and Heidegger Rather than the death or destruction of beauty Vercellone argues instead that beauty in the twentieth century came back to live in reality and everyday life He suggests this is a new edition of the classical ideal rather than an abandonment of it and further makes the case for the ecological significance of this orientation and outlook SUNY series in contemporary Italian philosophy, Between Nihilism and Politics Silvia Benso,Brian Schroeder,2011-07-02 Essays describe Italian philosopher Gianni Vattimo s unique and radical hermeneutic philosophy Rethinking Life Silvia Benso,2022-07-01 This volume gathers fourteen contributions written by Italian philosophers within the context of the precariousness and vulnerability revealed by the Covid 19 pandemic The pandemic compels us to rethink what is affected most by this global occurrence yet does not end with it that is life Beyond the geographical socio political and medical contexts in which the reflections originate Rethinking Life is deeply utopian presenting aspirations toward a different configuration of life and collective living centered on relational subjectivities interconnectedness interdependence and ultimately solidarity How does the pandemic what it represents and exposes call us to rethink our notion of life How does an episode of morbidity affect a fuller understanding of life Can such a hermeneutic shift be dared and sustained The sobriety of the reflections yields elegant incisive and direct prose of profound effect and immediacy and a captivating lucid and thought provoking narrative Selected Essays in Contemporary Italian Philosophy Jurij Verč,2012 Manifesto del nuovo realismo Maurizio Ferraris,2014
