Advancing Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Educational Psychology Gregory Arief D. Liem, Allan B. I. Bernardo, 2013-08-01 Scholars and practitioners in the fields of education and educational psychology have come to agree that conceptions of learning and teaching student and teacher motivation engagement learning and teaching strategies and by implication student academic achievement and teacher effectiveness are also influenced by a sociocultural context where the schooling process takes place This raises the question if educational psychology theorizing and findings can be adopted to inform and guide teaching and learning in different cultures As such there is a compelling and timely need for educational psychology researchers to harness advanced cross cultural research designs and look at the different key facets of student and teacher academic careers from a cross cultural perspective Dennis McInerney is one of the key pioneering figures in cross cultural educational psychology and has also edited a book series on Research on Sociocultural Influences on Motivation and Learning Information Age Publishing His ideas and research have inspired many to examine the role of sociocultural context in motivation and learning This volume is a celebration of McInerney s numerous and extensive contributions as a scholar as well as an appreciation of his personal qualities that make him such an inspiring person In this festschrift the editors seek to extend the scholarly contributions of Dennis McInerney by inviting internationally recognized and leading educational psychology scholars who have inspired and been inspired by his work to re examine their research expertise from a cross cultural perspective The volume aims to stimulate researchers scholars and graduate students in their endeavor to re look their research from a cross cultural lens A Project-Based Guide to Undergraduate Research in Mathematics Pamela E. Harris,Erik Insko,Aaron Wootton,2020-04-17 This volume provides accessible and self contained research problems designed for undergraduate student projects and simultaneously promotes the development of sustainable undergraduate research programs The chapters in this work span a variety of topical areas of pure and applied mathematics and mathematics education Each chapter gives a self contained introduction on a research topic with an emphasis on the specific tools and knowledge needed to create and maintain fruitful research programs for undergraduates Some of the topics discussed include Disease modeling Tropical curves and surfaces Numerical semigroups Mathematics Education This volume will primarily appeal to undergraduate students interested in pursuing research projects and faculty members seeking to mentor them It may also aid students and faculty participating in independent studies and capstone projects

Handbook of Research on Student Engagement Amy L. Reschly,Sandra L. Christenson,2022-10-19 The second edition of the handbook reflects the expanding growth and sophistication in research on student engagement Editorial scope and coverage are significantly expanded in the new edition including numerous new chapters that address such topics as child and adolescent well being resilience and social emotional learning as well as extending student engagement into the realm of college attendance and persistence In addition to its enhanced focus on student engagement as a means for promoting positive youth development all original chapters have been extensively revised and updated including those focusing on such foundational topics related to student engagement as motivation measurement high school dropout school reform and families Key areas of coverage include Demography and structural barriers to student engagement Developmental and social contexts of student engagement Student engagement and resilience Engaging students through effective academic instruction and classroom management Social emotional learning and student mental health and physical well being Student engagement across the globe languages and cultures The second edition of the Handbook of Research on Student Engagement is the definitive resource for researchers scientist practitioners and clinicians as well as graduate students in such varied fields as clinical child and school psychology social work public health educational psychology teaching and teacher education educational policy and all interrelated disciplines Handbook of Competence and Motivation, First Edition Andrew J. Elliot, Carol S. Dweck, 2013-10-15 This important handbook provides a comprehensive authoritative review of achievement motivation and establishes the concept of competence as an organizing framework for the field The editors synthesize diverse perspectives on why and how individuals are motivated in school work sports and other settings Written by leading investigators chapters reexamine central constructs in achievement motivation explore the impact of developmental contextual and sociocultural factors and analyze the role of self regulatory processes Focusing on the ways in which achievement is motivated by the desire to experience competence and avoid experiencing incompetence the volume integrates disparate theories and findings and sets forth a coherent agenda for future research Understanding Underachievement In School Children Komilla Thapa, Meera Varma, 2007 Study conducted in Allahabad India Students at Risk of School Failure José Jesús Gázquez, José Carlos Núñez, 2018-10-18 The main objective of this Research Topic is to determine the conditions that place students at risk of school failure identifying student and context variables In spite of the fact that there is currently little doubt about how one learns and how to teach in some countries of the developed world there is still there is a high rate of school failure Although the term school failure is a very complex construct insofar as its causes consequences and development from the field of educational psychology the construct student engagement has recently gained special interest in an attempt to deal with the serious problem of school failure School engagement builds on the anatomy of the students involvement in school and describes their feelings behaviors and thoughts about their school experiences So engagement is an important component of students school experience with a close relationship to achievement and school failure Children who self set academic goals attend school regularly and on time behave well in class complete their homework and study at home are likely to interact adequately with the school social and physical environments and perform well in school In contrast children who miss school are more likely to display disruptive behaviors in class miss homework frequently exhibit violent behaviors on the playground fail subjects be retained and if the behaviors persist quit school Moreover engagement should also be considered as an important school outcome eliciting more or less supportive reactions from educators For example children who display school engaged behaviors are likely to receive motivational and instructional support from their teachers The opposite may also be true But what makes student engage more or less The relevant literature indicates that personal variables e g sensory motor neurodevelopmental cognitive motivational emotional behavior problems learning difficulties addictions social and or cultural variables e g negative family conditions child abuse cultural deprivation ethnic conditions immigration or school variables e g coexistence at school bullying cyberbullying may concurrently hinder engagement preventing the student from acquiring the learnings in the same conditions as the rest of the classmates The Structure of Biographical Data and Its Relationships to Vocational Needs and Values Brian Edward Engdahl,1980
