Choosing Your A-Levels and Other Post-16 Options Gary Woodward, 2008-09-15 This book gives an overview of the different courses and qualifications available to young people post GCSE It profiles over 40 of the most popular A level AS level and new diploma subject areas listing everything students need to know to make an informed choice The only book on the market to link post 16 options to future career aspirations it contains independent advice providing all the options so that students can choose which route is best for them without outside influence pressure Easily navigable it is divided into sections by subject area and listed alphabetically making it easy for students to browse Author Gary Woodward is a qualified careers consultant and has significant experience of advising young people about education and career options as well as job hunting Beginning Teachers Michael

Crowhurst,2015-04-27 In this collection of narratives beginning teachers describe and reflect on critical incidents classes that didn't quite go to plan These experiences are recalled in a general way and all names and locations are fictionalized Each narrative while situated in a classroom focuses on the experience of the teacher author and sheds light on their thinking as they work through the complex event they are remembering Beginning teachers then imagine how they might approach a similar situation in the future While developing reflective practice techniques can support and enhance individual practice when these accounts are shared with others there is some scope for enhancing educative experiences generally There is a long tradition of reflective practice writing in education and this small workbook aims to make a contribution to this genre Each reflective practitioner narrative is followed with an invitation to discussion section and periodically through the workbook sideline methodologies are introduced that readers can use to support further analysis The beginning teacher narratives are authentic complex and alive and as a consequence they will generate lively discussion in tutorial spaces with beginning teachers The materials are informed by various strands of poststructural and critical theory and therefore they are intended to reflect a dialogic stance rather than signpost specific directions The One-Strand River Richard Kenney,2012-10-03 Fourteen years after his last book of poems we have a glorious new volume from Richard Kenney who has been hailed by The New York Review of Books as one of the most gifted and multifaceted and original of American poets In The One Strand River Kenney has tales to tell of loves births and confounding politics in lively quicksilver language that surprises at every turn We meet the poet as a middle aged husband walking the dog confiding Churlish thoughts bedevil me often Sunshine girls half my age the future unseen perishing armies He swings between surreal dawn vistas and the unsettling sight of seventh grade girls circling his teenage son between the pleasure of a New Year's celebration with Nipperkin and striking a note that is rare in contemporary poetry satirical attack with an eye on the news of the day A master of many tones Kenney recalls a nursery rhyme in the title poem Gray goose and gander How long have we together and ponders the one strand river that is the sea with its one encircling shore and its tidal pull on both the landscape and the human heart Kenney is never a confessional poet yet we meet a powerful mind here that of a man who is always responding to provocations seen and unseen taking pleasure in the possibilities of words themselves tossing them up into the daily storm of our vexations and our perilous happiness Adolescent Literacy in the Academic Disciplines Tamara L.

Jetton,Cynthia Shanahan,2012-01-25 From leading authorities in both adolescent literacy and content area teaching this book addresses the particular challenges of literacy learning in each of the major academic disciplines Chapters focus on how to help students successfully engage with texts and ideas in English literature science math history and arts classrooms The book shows that while general strategies for reading informational texts are essential they are not enough students also need to learn processing strategies that are quite specific to each subject and its typical tasks or problems Vignettes from exemplary classrooms illustrate research based ways to build content area knowledge while targeting essential reading and writing skills

Doing Civility Kent M. Weeks, 2014-01-30 Doing Civility: Breaking the Cycle of Incivility on the Campus explores ways in which members of the college community can take proactive steps to break the cycle of incivility Civility requires extending mutual respect to others especially people with different values beliefs and ideas It also involves a civic responsibility to strengthen the community Doing Civility dives into how civility can be applied in practical ways using real life student stories Doing Civility is a companion book to In Search of Civility Together the two books provide sharp analysis for understanding civility on campus and in the workplace Doing Civility incorporates interactive tools and exercises at the end of each chapter designed to help readers apply the concepts covered in the chapter The tools and exercises are perfect for self reflection or small group discussions Americans are troubled by the growing incivility they see in public life and in their interpersonal relationships The modern college and university may offer the best and most effective forum for providing an education in civility for our future leaders It's time to do civility
