Diggs, 1976 Wailing Wall Deedra Climer, 2015-11-10 Approaching middle age Deedra Climer experienced an unimaginable tragedy the death of her only son Joshua in a motorcycle accident The spiral of grief that followed reopened ugly wounds that had never fully healed being raised by a mentally ill and drug addicted mother the struggles she faced as a young single mother and the guilt from exposing her children to one toxic boyfriend after another Stripped bare emotionally Deedra is forced to face who she is and where she came from In sifting through the stark pain of the past she is finally able to piece together her own sense of self and begin to imagine an unburdened future Told with crushing honesty and an unflinching eye Wailing Wall shares one woman's struggle to make sense of her shattered life in the year following her son's death Framed by the devastation of loss Deedra's story reaches beyond heartbreak to show the strength of her spirit illuminated by the persevering hope of redemption Michigan between Black females choice of hairstyles grooming and transmitted messages of aesthetics by the dominant culture through culturally specific magazines What role do the natural hair blogs vlogs play as a change agent in encouraging or discouraging consumers grooming their hair in its natural state What impact does a globalized consumer market of Black hair care products have on Hispanic Latinas and Bi Racial women Are Black female Generation Y members more likely to receive backlash for failure to conform their hair to dominant standards in their hair adornment in the workplace Johnson thus demonstrates that the major concern from messages sent to Black women about their hair is its impact on Black identity Thus the goal of Black women should be to break with hegemonic modes of seeing thinking and being for full liberation This critical and deep consciousness will debunk the messages told to Black women that their kinky frizzy thick hair is undesirable bad unmanageable and shackling
