The Global Automotive Industry Paul Nieuwenhuis, Peter Wells, 2015-08-10 The automotive industry is still one of the world s largest manufacturing sectors but it suffers from being very technology focused as well as being relatively short term focused There is little emphasis within the industry and its consultancy and analyst supply network on the broader social and economic impacts of automobility and of the sector that provides it The Global Automotive Industry addresses this need and is a first port of call for any academic official or consultant wanting an overview of the state of the industry An international team of specialist researchers both from academia and business review and analyse the key issues that make vehicle manufacturing still the world s premier manufacturing sector closely tied in with the fortunes of both established and newly emerging economies In doing so it covers issues related to manufacturing both established practices as well as new developments issues relating to distribution marketing and retail vehicle technologies and regulatory trends and crucially labour practices and the people who build cars In all this it explains both how the current situation arose and also likely future trajectories both in terms of social and regulatory trends as the technological marketing and labour practice responses to those leading in many cases to the development of new business models Key features Provides a global overview of the automotive industry covering its current state and considering future challenges Contains contributions from international specialists in the automotive sector Presents current research and sets this in an historical and broader industry context Covers threats to the industry including globalization economic and environmental sustainability The Global Automotive Industry is a must have reference for researchers and practitioners in the automotive industry and is an excellent source of information for business schools governments and graduate and undergraduate students in automotive engineering Africa's Information Revolution

James T. Murphy, Padraig R. Carmody, 2015-04-20 Africa's Information Revolution was recently announced as the 2016 prizewinner of the Royal Academy for Overseas Sciences congratulations to the authors James T Murphy and Padraig Carmody Africa's Information Revolution presents an in depth examination of the development and economic geographies accompanying the rapid diffusion of new ICTs in Sub Saharan Africa Represents the first book length comparative case study ICT diffusion in Africa of its kind Confronts current information and communication technologies for development ICT4D discourse by providing a counter to largely optimistic mainstream perspectives on Africa's prospects for m and e development Features comparative research based on more than 200 interviews with firms from a manufacturing and service industry in Tanzania and South Africa Raises key insights regarding the structural challenges facing Africa even in the context of the continent's recent economic growth spurt Combines perspectives from economic and development geography and science and technology studies to demonstrate the power of integrated conceptual theoretical frameworks Include maps photos diagrams and tables to highlight the concepts field research settings and key findings The Political Economy of City Branding Ari-Veikko Anttiroiko, 2014-02-24 Globalization affects urban communities in many ways One of its manifestations is increased intercity competition which compels cities to increase their attractiveness in terms of capital entrepreneurship information expertise and consumption This competition takes place in an asymmetric field with cities trying to find the best possible ways of using their natural and created assets the latter including a naturally evolving reputation or consciously developed competitive identity or brand The Political Economy of City Branding discusses this phenomenon from the perspective of numerous post industrial cities in North America Europe East Asia and Australasia Special attention is given to local economic development policy and industrial profiling and global city rankings are used to provide empirical evidence for cities characteristics and positions in the global urban hierarchy On top of this social and urban challenges such as creative class struggle are also discussed The core message of the book is that cities should apply the tools of city branding in their industrial promotion and specialization but at the same time take into account the special nature of their urban communities and be open and inclusive in their brand policies in order to ensure optimal results This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners working in the areas of local economic development urban planning public management and branding Development in Difficult Sociopolitical Contexts A. Ware, 2016-04-30 This edited volume explores development in the so called fragile failed and pariah states It examines the literature on both fragile states and their development and offers eleven case studies on countries ranking in the very high alert and very high warning categories in the Fund for Peace Failed States Index Russian Modernization Markku Kivinen,Brendan G.

Humphreys,2020-11-29 Building on an original interpretation of social theory and an interdisciplinary approach this book creates a new paradigm in the Russian studies Taking a fresh view of Russia s multiple experiences of modernization it seeks to explain the Putin era in a completely new way This book explores the paradoxical and contradictory aspects of Russia analyzing the energy dependent economy and hybrid political regime but also religion welfare and culture and their often complex interrelations Written by a community of both Western and Russian scholars this book re affirms the value of social science when confronting a society that has undergone enormous and costly systematic changes The Russian elites see modernization narrowly as economic and technological competitiveness The contributors to this volume see contemporary Russia facing a series of antinomies which are macro level dilemmas that cannot be abolished either by philosophical mediation or by immediate political decisions As such they are the tension fields that constitute choices for various competing agencies This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Russian studies transition studies sociology social policy political science energy policy cultural studies and stratification studies Professionals involved in energy ecology and security policy will also find this publication a rich source The Assessment of Learning in Engineering Education John Heywood,2016-02-23 Explores how we judge engineering education in order to effectively redesign courses and programs that will prepare new engineers for various professional and academic careers Shows how present approaches to assessment were shaped and what the future holds Analyzes the validity of teaching and judging engineering education Shows the integral role that assessment plays in curriculum design and implementation Examines the sociotechnical system s impact on engineering curricula Tourism and Earthquakes C. Michael Hall,Girish Prayag,2020-10-08 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the relationship between tourism and earthquakes through all stages of a disaster It discusses the measures available to manage tourism after earthquakes and examines the means to mitigate the potential impacts of earthquakes on tourism The chapters address important questions such as are tourists who come to earthquake regions immediately after an earthquake a benefit or a burden for recovery and should priority be given to evacuate tourists after an earthquake hits The volume provides insights into the ethical commercial and socioeconomic issues facing tourism after a major earthquake It will be useful to students and researchers in tourism studies tourism planning and marketing natural hazards and destination and disaster management The Oxford Companion to the Economics of China Shenggen Fan,Ravi Kanbur,Shang-Jin Wei,Xiaobo Zhang,2014-10-30 China s rise as an economic powerhouse raises a number of questions that are the subject of lively debate How did the country do it How applicable are the lessons of China s economic reform of the past thirty years to the challenges it faces in the next three decades What does the detailed pattern of China s success and challenges look like at the sub sectoral and sub national levels and what does this mean for future policy How will China s role as a global economic player evolve The Oxford Companion to the Economics of China presents an original collection of perspectives on the Chinese economy s past present and future 99 entries written by the leading China analysts of our time The topics covered include the China model future prospects for China China and the global economy trade and the Chinese economy macroeconomics and finance urbanisation industry and markets agriculture and rural development land infrastructure and environment population and labour dimensions of wellbeing and inequality health and education gender equity regional divergence in China and a selection of perspectives on some of China s provinces The Editors are four global leaders in Chinese economic analysis and policy who between them have held or hold the following positions Director General International Food Policy Research Institute Co Editor China Economic Review President Chinese Economists Society Assistant Director of Research at the IMF Principal Adviser to the Chief Economist of the World Bank and Professors of Economics at Ivy League Universities

Public City Beau B Beza, Brendan Gleeson, 2014-11-25 Paul Mees urban ideal counted on watchful confident and well informed citizenry to work collectively in a quest for fair and just cities As such The Public City is largely a critique of neo liberalism and its arguably negative influence on urban prospects As Mees explained it neo liberal urbanism was much more than a political aberration it was a threat that imposed many costly failures in an age overshadowed by grave ecological challenges Fifteen of Australia and New Zealand s leading urban scholars including Professor Emeritus Jean Hillier and Professor Brendan Gleeson have contributed to this collection The Public City includes a foreword by the late Professor Sir Peter Hall a world leader in urban planning from Britain Kenneth Davidson one of Australia s top economic columnists has also contributed a chapter The collective works in this book extend beyond an analysis of urban patterns to provide a blueprint for the improvement of civic and institutional purpose in the creation of the public city

Inside the Enemy's Computer Clement Guitton, 2017-08-01 Attribution tracing those responsible for a cyber attack is of primary importance when classifying it as a criminal act an act of war or an act of terrorism Three assumptions dominate current thinking attribution is a technical problem it is unsolvable and it is unique Approaching attribution as a problem forces us to consider it either as solved or unsolved Yet attribution is far more nuanced and is best approached as a process in constant flux driven by judicial and political pressures In the criminal context courts must assess the guilt of criminals mainly based on technical evidence In the national security context decision makers must analyse unreliable and mainly non technical information in order to identify an enemy of the state Attribution in both contexts is political in criminal cases laws reflect society s prevailing norms and powers in national security cases attribution reflects a state s will to maintain increase or assert its power However both processes differ on many levels The constraints which reflect common aspects of many other political issues constitute the structure of the book the need for judgement calls the role of private companies the standards of evidence the role of time and the plausible deniability of attacks

Bihar and Mithila J. Albert Rorabacher, 2016-09-13 The world has become obsessed with the Western notions of progress development and globalization the latter a form of human and economic homogenization These processes through the aegis of the United Nations are comparatively monitored Those nations deemed to be lagging behind are then provided with foreign aid and developmental assistance For nearly seventy years India has sought its place in this global endeavour yet even today abject poverty and backwardness can be observed in districts in almost every state with the highest concentration of such districts found in the state of Bihar and a cultural enclave known as Mithila Development in India has been elusive because it is difficult to define and because the Western concepts of development and progress have no absolute equivalents within many non Western settings As a consequence development programmes often fail because they are unable to ask the right questions but equally important is the political economy derived from foreign aid For politicians there is no long term benefit to be derived from successful development In general foreign aid only serves to corrupt governments and politicians and in the end does very little for those who need help The struggling states of Bihar and Mithila serve as extreme examples of India's problems Development here has been thwarted by a hereditary landed aristocracy supported by religion casteism custom social stratification tradition and patterns of behaviour that can be traced back millennia In turn all these have been masterfully manipulated by co-opted politicians who have turned politics into a veritable art form as this volume comprehensively demonstrates

Perspectives on South Africa-China Relations at 15 Years Yazini April, Garth Shelton, 2014-12-29 The year 2013 marked 15 years of the phenomenal diplomatic relations between South Africa and China The relationship between South Africa and China has been developing since diplomatic ties were established on 1 January 1998 Since then South Africa China's bilateral relations have undergone rapid and all facet development There were frequent high level and other kinds of mutual exchanges between the two countries The bilateral relations within the space of fifteen years have evolved from a Partnership to a Strategic Partnership and then to a Comprehensive Strategic Partnership Furthermore in the Comprehensive Strategic Partnership which was set out in the Beijing Declaration signed in 2010 the two countries expressed the desire to further strengthen and deepen cooperation in both bilateral and regional affairs by establishing a comprehensive strategic partnership based on equality mutual benefit and common development The agreements range from political dialogue trade investment mineral exploration manufacturing and agriculture to joint efforts in the global arena such as in the United Nations the Forum on China Africa Cooperation FOCAC and Brazil Russia India China and South Africa BRICS In recognition of the aforementioned bilateral achievements on 19 September 2013 an Ambassadorial forum was co hosted by the Department of International Relations and Cooperation DIRCO The Embassy of the People s Republic of China in the Republic of South Africa and the Africa Institute of South Africa Human Science Research Council AISA HSRC The objective of the Ambassadorial Forum was to provide an opportunity for reflections on the past and outlook on the future diplomatic relations between South Africa and China This book presents the official keynote addresses which provide strategic thinking and foresight into the bilateral relations between the two countries The main substance of the book is a collection of the Ambassadorial Forum papers that were submitted The papers evaluate economic and political progress from a national interest perspective Progress is measured against variables such as trade growth people to people development partnerships and the implementation of state agreements all against the background of the theory of national interest

Industrial Development Report 2013 United Nations, 2014-03-15 This Report demonstrates that a more sustainable energy future is within our reach and that industrial energy efficiency is key It shows how industrial energy efficiency can make a difference by providing a detailed comprehensive global assessment of potentials technologies economic benefits as well as cost and barriers to be removed It provides an overview of the policy instruments most useful for developing economies This innovative work also reminds us that we must act now if we are to unlock the potential of current and emerging energy efficiency technologies The opportunities are significant by reducing energy inputs per unit of output we will benefit from improvements in standards of living while protecting the environment
