Adele has a special ability passed down through her family she can sometimes see the future. She doesn't know exactly why she's been drawn to the space station where her aunt deals cards in a bar that caters to station workers and ex-military. She only knows that she needs to be there. When she meets David sparks of desire fly between them and she begins to suspect that he is a big part of the reason she traveled halfway across the galaxy. Pirates attack the station and it'll be up to Adele and David to repel the invaders. Passion flares as they wait for the right moment to overcome the alien threat and retake the station. But what good can one retired soldier and a civilian do against a ship full of alien pirates?
