academic librarians to find superior ways to deliver high quality reference service to students faculty and researchers Reference Assessment and Evaluation offers librarians and administrators a plethora of fresh ideas and methods to effectively assess and evaluate reference service in any academic library Leading experts share their own best practices in delivering digital reference training staff and student workers and providing instruction through case studies from academic libraries of all sizes Because of fiscal pressures the need to attract the best and brightest students and faculty to the academy and increased competition from Internet search engines the evaluation and assessment of reference service remains one of the most important challenges for academic libraries Reference Assessment and Evaluation provides practical tips and clear examples on assessing and evaluating several diverse aspects of reference services This book discusses in detail case studies from various colleges and universities on wide ranging issues such as virtual reference evaluation merging reference desks peer evaluations library instruction and staff development Academic libraries of all types will find opportunities to modify these innovative ideas to remain at the forefront of reference service Topics in Reference Assessment and Evaluation include a case study of the library at the University of Colorado at Boulder s efforts to implement a drop in research consultation program for students enrolled in the introductory writing course coordination of an annual professional development program for specialized instruction targeted at faculty and staff members at Colorado State University peer observation between the reference staff members of Augustana College Library and St Ambrose University Library the merging of San Jose State University s government publication desk with the reference services desk along with the public library s reference desk Valparaiso University s main library s training and use of student assistants analyzing user and librarian satisfaction within virtual reference transactions evaluation of the University of South Alabama s Baugh Biomedical Library s chat reference service evaluation of the University of Texas at Arlington s virtual reference service library technology s impact on reference desk statistics statistical analysis of reference desk data for staffing needs at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga Reference Assessment and Evaluation is timely important reading for academic references librarians and supervisors

Rethinking Reference for Academic Libraries Carrie Forbes, Jennifer Bowers, 2014-12-05 The rapid development of the Web and Web based technologies has led to an ongoing redefinition of reference services in academic libraries A growing diversity of users and the need and possibility for collaboration in delivering reference services bring additional pressures for change At the same time there are growing demands for libraries to show accountability and service value All of these trends have impacted the field and will continue to shape reference and research services And they have led to a need for increasingly specialized professional competencies and a literature to support them In order to reimagine reference service for twenty first century learning environments practitioners will need to understand several focal areas of emerging reference In particular collaboration with campus partners diverse student populations technological innovations the need for assessment and new professional competencies present new challenges and opportunities for creating a twenty first century learning environment Librarians must not only understand but also embrace these emerging reference practices This edited volume containing five sections and fourteen chapters reviews the current state of reference services in academic libraries with an emphasis on innovative developments and future trends The main theme that runs through the book is the urgent need for inventive imaginative and responsive reference and research services Through literature reviews and case studies this book provides professionals with a convenient compilation of timely issues and models at comparable institutions As academic libraries shift from functioning primarily as collections repositories to serving as key players in discovery and knowledge creation value added services such as reference are even more central to libraries and universities changing missions

Big Basin Redwood Forest Traci Bliss,2021-09-15 The epic saga of Big Basin began in the late 1800s when the surrounding communities saw their once inexhaustible redwood forests vanishing Expanding railways demanded timber as they crisscrossed the nation but the more redwoods that fell to the woodman s axe the greater the effects on the local climate California s groundbreaking environmental movement attracted individuals from every walk of life From the adopted son of a robber baron to a bohemian woman winemaker to a Jesuit priest resilient campaigners produced an unparalleled model of citizen action Join author Traci Bliss as she reveals the untold story of a herculean effort to preserve the ancient redwoods for future generations
