English Sindh Text Board Chapter 4:

Na'at Saleem Ullah Jundran,1999 Authenticity in Materials Development for Language Learning Alan Maley,Brian Tomlinson,2017-11-06 This volume makes a unique contribution to the literature on materials development for language learning It focuses on issues related to authenticity in materials development and includes research based position statements applications of theory to practice and developments of theory from observed practice Each paper concentrates on a different aspect of authenticity and many of them introduce the reader to previously unexplored facets of authenticity The chapters are sequenced so that the book moves from general discussion about the value of authenticity to reports of evaluations of authenticity to reports of the exploitation of authenticity in specific learning contexts Many questions are raised much revealing data is reported and analysed and many pedagogic suggestions are made The contributions here have been written so that they are of potential value to teachers to materials developers to post graduate students and to researchers They are written to be academically rigorous but at the same time to be accessible to newcomers to the field and to experienced experts alike

CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen,2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country s problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don t they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools More importantly why do the ulama which literally means those who possess knowledge ilm particularly of Islam maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms John L Esposito University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim Christian Understanding Georgetown University

The Shias of Pakistan Andreas Rieck,2016-01-15 The Shias of Pakistan are the world s second largest Shia community after that of Iran but comprise only 10 15 per cent of Pakistan s population In recent decades Sunni extremists have increasingly targeted them with hate propaganda and terrorism yet paradoxically Shias have always been fully integrated into all sections of political professional and social life without suffering any discrimination In mainstream politics the Shia Sunni divide has never been an issue in Pakistan Shia politicians in Pakistan have usually downplayed their religious beliefs but there have always been individuals and groups who emphasised their Shia identity and who zealously campaigned for equal rights for the Shias wherever and whenever they perceived these to be threatened Shia ulama have been at the forefront of communal activism in Pakistan since 1949 but Shia laymen also participated in such organisations as they had in pre partition India Based mainly on Urdu sources Rieck s book examines first the history of Pakistan s Shias including their communal organisations the growth of the Shia ulama class of religious schools and rivalry between orthodox ulama and popular preachers second the outcome of lobbying of successive Pakistan governments by Shia organisations and third the Shia Sunni conflict which is increasingly virulent due to the state s failure to combat Sunni extremism Economic and Political Weekly ,2002

Saha,2004-01-01 Today new and ever more pernicious forms of terrorist violence threaten the world Because these new forms of violence are so often linked to religious radicalism modern terrorism has challenged the secular ethics of contemporary civil society There is a pressing need to understand modern religious movements that have added militancy and belligerence as fundamental elements of religious practice Contributors to this volume painstakingly tackle the question of how to define the contours of current religious fundamentalism as they examine the private and public postures of fundamentalist rhetoric the importance of its regional variants and the damage it can do to regional and national education systems Their analysis tracks trends in religious movements that aspire to radicalize reform and violently topple governments and nations while highlighting the difference between fundamentalist interpretations and other longstanding juridical political and intellectual traditions
