Industry Competitiveness:

Digitalization, Management, and Integration Aleksei V. Bogoviz, Julia V. Ragulina, 2021-08-14 This timely book presents a remarkable collection of chapters that provides readers with a coherent framework for understanding the factors driving industry competitiveness in contemporary conditions of economic digitalization and the ongoing transition to industry 4.0. Presenting contributions by scientists, engineers, and field experts, the book focuses on using advanced technologies and applications building innovative and resilient systems in industrial enterprises, developing competitive management systems, creating competence networks, and enhancing integration to foster and sustain industry competitiveness. Both qualitative and quantitative studies are included, and this collection of diverse perspectives adds to the richness of the volume's insights. Along with reviewing deep theoretical concepts and innovative approaches, the publication provides practical applications and technological solutions to real world problems existing in industry. Recent advances in management theory and practice focused on the forces driving competition in industry are also extensively covered by the leading scholars and practitioners.

Identity at Work Eric Olmedo, 2015-07-16 This book investigates the interface of ethnicity with occupation empirically observed in luxury international hotels in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. It employs the two main disciplines of anthropology and sociology in order to understand the root causes and meaning of ethnicity at work within the hospitality industry sector. More specifically, it observes social change in a multi-ethnic and non-secular society through an ethnographic study located in a micro-organisation, the Grand Hotel. At the individual level, this research shows how identity shifts and transformation can be mediated through the consumption and manipulation of food at the workplace. In addition, it combines an ambitious theoretical discussion on the concept of ethnicity together with empirical data that highlights how ethnicity is lived on an everyday basis at a workplace, manifesting the dynamics of cultural, religious, and ethnic diversity. The book presents the quantitative and qualitative findings of two complementary surveys and pursues an interdisciplinary approach as it integrates methodologies from the sociology of organisations with classic fieldwork methods borrowed from ethnology while combining French and Anglo-Saxon schools of thought on questions of identity and ethnicity. The results of the cultural contact occurring in a westernised pocket of the global labour market in which social practices derive from the headquarters located in a society where ethnicity is self-ascribed with Malaysian social actors to whom ethnicity is assigned will be of particular interest for social scientists and general readers alike.
