Gathering Of Old Men Questions And Answers:

Reclaiming Community in Contemporary African American Fiction Philip Page, 2011-08-19 As a reaction against persistent black exclusion from white American society the novels of recent African American writers boldly celebrate the heritage of black culture They acclaim a people once dispersed by racism and humiliation but now restoring its legacy of rich community life For close examination of this theme Philip Page brings together five novelists who are in the forefront of contemporary fiction and shows how their voices combine for an ongoing dialogue on the importance of community to the African American world Gaining its special force through addressing national concerns and through never backing away from the truth in the face of stubborn opposition the fiction of Gaines Naylor Johnson Cade Bambara and Wideman contributes to postmodernist debates on race the repressed past and the contemporary American conscience Answers to Questions
