TIME FOR KIDS® Practicing for STAAR Success: Reading: Grade 4 Charles

Aracich,2017-01-01 Help students learn to interact with texts in ways that prepare them for the STAAR Reading test while expanding their knowledge bases By implementing this resource into instruction students will sharpen their comprehension and critical thinking skills to build the stamina necessary to succeed on the state test Featuring TIME for Kids content this resource offers high interest informational texts engaging literature passages and poems Questions are carefully crafted to guide students as they approach the texts and share their understanding The practice exercises help students with skills such as making inferences and drawing conclusions analyzing the development of ideas or characters identifying author s viewpoint and identifying main idea theme and supporting details This must have resource is perfect to help promote the use of skills needed for success in the 21st century Playing Favorites Mara Sapon-Shevin,1994-04-12 Playing Favorites examines the ways in which gifted education disrupts the classroom community deskills regular classroom teachers limits their ability and willingness to meet individual needs and impairs the creation of a climate of inclusion and acceptance of difference Sapon Shevin shows here that current models of gifted education are elitist and meritocratic treating some children not just differently than others but better and that in large urban districts gifted education programs are often racist as well By creating and funding gifted programs the author contends schools engage in a form of educational triage serving those children for whom inadequate programming and educational failure would not be acceptable while maintaining the status quo for the majority of the school population This book provides support for teachers parents and administrators who have found themselves caught in the struggle of insuring an appropriate education for some children without sacrificing the good of all Incorporating the words of teachers parents and students as well as related research and theory this book analyzes the relationship between diversity community and social justice Sapon Shevin challenges the reader to reconsider ways in which schools can meet individual educational needs while preserving communities of learners as well as the commitment to the education of all children Finally the book extends the challenge and assurance that we need not choose between quality education for some and mediocre education for all Talking with Your Kids about God Natasha Crain,2017-10-17 Christian parenting is hard work and it s getting harder Parents have a deep desire to pass on their faith but fear that today s increasingly skeptical and hostile world will eventually lead their kids to reject the truth of Christianity That leaves many parents feeling overwhelmed uncertain of what they can do to help their children given the difficulty and extent of the faith challenges they will face This practical and timely resource gives parents the confidence of knowing what to discuss with their children and how to discuss it in order to facilitate impactful conversations that will form the basis of a lifelong faith In a friendly parent to parent voice Natasha Crain identifies 30 specific conversations about God that parents must have with their children organizing them under the categories of the existence of God science and God the nature of God believing in God the difference God makes Chapters are sequenced in a curriculum oriented way to provide a cumulative learning experience making this book a flexible resource for use in multiple settings homes church classes youth groups small groups private Christian schools and homeschools Every chapter has a step by step conversation guide with discussion questions and tips and content is readily adaptable for use with kids of any age elementary through high school

Endorsements My prayer is that God will use this book to both motivate and equip you to help your kids develop convictions about their faith From the foreword by Sean McDowell PhD Biola University professor speaker and author of more than eighteen books including A New Kind of Apologist I can't think of a more relevant or more needed book for parents raising kids in today's culture This book on apologetics will lead parents in critical conversations that will help grow and guide kids to be lifelong followers of Christ Kristen Welch author of Raising Grateful Kids in an Entitled World Hey parents Do you want to reduce the chances that your child will follow the crowd to the point of rejecting Christ and the values and truths you hold so dearly Then you need to have the conversations that Natasha Crain so brilliantly describes in this book Prevent heartbreak later by reading and heeding this book now Frank Turek PhD president of CrossExamined Ministries and author of I Don't Have Enough Faith to Be an Atheist and Stealing from God May this book lead to thousands more Moms and Dads engaging with their kids through an intelligent faith And may there be tens of thousands more kids who feel loved because the adults in their lives take their questions seriously Jeff Myers PhD president Summit Ministries Fighter Within Christopher Olech, 2016-02-02 A wonderful ride that encompasses the true essence of martial arts Olech beautifully relates the common man with the teachings and spirit of many of the sport's masters Joe Ferraro host of UFC Central radio The Power of Parent-Child Conversations Jeff Zwiers, 2021-06-15 This book focuses on how parents and other caregivers can have richer and more fruitful conversations with their children Parents will be able to use the ideas in this book to improve conversations with their children in ways that help them a more effectively learn in school b develop stronger and more lasting relationships in and out of school and c increase their critical thinking and problem solving abilities Some children are more prepared for school than others Much of this preparation comes from the types of conversations that children have and listen to at home Many children need more practice in developing and using key conversation skills that are expected in school and life They need more practice co constructing ideas with other people face to face and they need more practice engaging in respectful collaboration and argumentation This book helps parents to provide such practice People, Land & Water, 2004

Indica Pranay Lal, 2016-12-07 Few places have been as influential as the Indian subcontinent in shaping the course of life on Earth Yet its evolution has remained largely unchronicled Indica A Deep Natural History of the Indian Subcontinent fills this gap From the oldest rocks formed three billion years ago in Karnataka to the arrival of our ancestors 50 000 years ago on the banks of the Indus the author meticulously sifts through wide ranging scientific disciplines and through the layers of earth to tell us the story of India filled with a variety of fierce reptiles fantastic dinosaurs gargantuan mammals and amazing plants Beautifully produced in full colour with a rare collection of images illustrations and maps Indica is full of fascinating lesser known facts It shows us how every piece of rock and inch of soil is a virtual museum and how over billions of years millions of spectacular creatures have reproduced walked and lived over and under it
