In this moving account of the Cuban Revolution and its aftermath, eleven women who lived through it as children or young adults recall the events of the last forty years. In Torres's words, "This book which began in Miami looking toward the island ends on the island as it gazes toward the exile community." These poets, artists, and scholars represent each post-revolution exile generation. Some left Cuba in the Peter Pan airlift, some left afterward, some never left at all. Others like the editor left as children only to return and leave again, disillusioned with both the exile community and with Castro's island. Together they testify to the powerful intersections of memory, politics, nation, and exile. Orpington to Ontario 2019 John Pateman, 2020. This is a record of my life in Thunder Bay during 2019, the places I visited including Ketchikan, Idaho, and Washington, DC, and the conferences I attended.
