Rocha, Sylvie Lorente, Adrian Bejan, 2012-12-04 Design happens everywhere whether in animate objects e g dendritic lung structures bacterial colonies and corals inanimate patterns river basins beach slope and dendritic crystals social dynamics pedestrian traffic flows or engineered systems heat dissipation in electronic circuitry This design in nature often takes on remarkably similar patterns which can be explained under one unifying Constructal Law This book explores the unifying power of the Constructal Law and its applications in all domains of design generation and evolution ranging from biology and geophysics to globalization energy sustainability and security The Constructal Law accounts for the universal tendency of flow systems to morph into evolving configurations that provide greater and easier access over time The Constructal Law resolves the many and contradictory ad hoc statements of optimality end design and destiny in nature such as minimum and maximum entropy production and minimum and maximum flow resistance and also explains the designs that are observed and copied in biomimetics Constructal Law and the Unifying Principle of Design covers the fundamentals of Constructal Theory and Design as well as presenting a variety of state of the art applications Experts from the biological physical and social sciences demonstrate the unification of all design phenomena in nature and apply this knowledge to novel designs in modern engineering such as vascularization for self healing and self cooling materials for aircraft and tree fins and cavities for heat transfer enhancement Nine-Tenths of the Law Christian Lund, 2021-01-05 An exploration of the relationship between possession and legalization across Indonesia and how people navigate dispossession The old aphorism possession is nine tenths of the law is particularly relevant in Indonesia which has seen a string of regime changes and a shifting legal landscape for property claims Ordinary people struggle to legalize their possessions and claim rights in competition with different branches of government as well as police army and private gangs This book explores the relationship between possession and legalization across Indonesia examining the imaginative and improvisational interpretations of law by which Indonesians navigate dispossession      Treasury Decisions Under Customs and Other Laws United States. Department of the Treasury, 1914 Vols for 1904 1926 include also decisions of the United States Board of General Appraisers      Islam in Modern Thailand Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown, 2013-10-01 This book addresses the complexity of Islam in Thailand by focusing on Islamic charities and institutions affiliated to the mosque By extrapolating through Islam and the waqf Islamic charity in different regions of Thailand the diversity in races and institutions it demonstrates the regional contrasts within Thai Islam The book also underlines the importance of the internal histories of these separate spaces and the processes by which institutions and ideologies become entrenched It goes on to look at the socio economic transformation that is taking place within the context of trading networks through Islamic institutions and civil networks linked to mosques madrasahs and regional power brokers Brown casts this study of private Islamic welfare as strengthening rather than weakening relations with the secular Thai state The current regime s effectiveness in coopting these Muslim elites including Lutfi and Wisoot into state bureaucracies assists in widening their popular base in the south in the north east and in Bangkok Such appointments were efficacious in reinforcing the elite s Islamic identity within a modern secular literate and cosmopolitan Thai culture In challenging existing studies of Thai Muslims as furtive protest minorities this book diverts our attention to how Islamic philanthropy provides the logic and dynamism behind the creation of autonomous spaces for these independent groups affording unusual insights into their economic political and social histories      The Politics of Shari'a Law Michael Buehler, 2016-09 An original and timely exploration of the continuing Islamization of Indonesian politics despite the electoral decline of Islamist parties      Complex Networks in Software, Knowledge, and Social Systems Miloš Savić, Mirjana Ivanović, Lakhmi C. Jain, 2018-05-10 This book provides a comprehensive review of complex networks from three different domains presents novel methods for analyzing them and highlights applications with accompanying case studies Special emphasis is placed on three specific kinds of complex networks of high technological and scientific importance software networks extracted from the source code of computer programs ontology networks describing semantic web ontologies and co authorship networks reflecting collaboration in science The book is primarily intended for researchers teachers and students interested in complex networks and network data analysis However it will also be valuable for researchers dealing with software engineering ontology engineering and scientometrics as it demonstrates how complex network analysis can be used to address important research issues in these three disciplines      Islamic Law in the Indian Ocean World Mahmood Kooria, Sanne Ravensbergen, 2021-09-23 This book explores the ways in which Muslim communities across the Indian Ocean world produced and shaped Islamic law and its texts ideas and practices in their local regional imperial national and transregional contexts With a focus on the production and transmission of Islamic law in the Indian Ocean the chapters in this book draw from and add to recent discourses on the legal histories and anthropologies of the Indian Ocean rim as well as to the conversations on global Islamic circulations By doing so this book argues for the importance of Islamic legal thoughts and practices of the so called peripheries to the core and kernel of Islamic traditions and the urgency of addressing their long existing role in the making of the historical and human experience of the religion Islamic law was and is not merely brought to but also produced in the Indian Ocean world through constant and critical engagements The book takes a long term and transregional perspective for a better understanding of the ways in which the oceanic Muslims have historically developed their religious juridical and intellectual traditions and continue to shape their lives within the frameworks of their religion Transregional and transdisciplinary in its approach this book will be of interest to scholars of Islamic Studies Indian Ocean Studies Legal History and Legal Anthropology Area Studies of South and Southeast Asia and East Africa Electrical Engineering YCT Expert Team, 2021 22 Electrical Engineering Solved Papers Indonesian Law Tim Lindsey, Simon Butt, 2018-09-05 Indonesia has a growing population of almost 300 million people it is increasingly involved in world affairs and has a booming economy The need to better understand its unique complex and often obscure legal system has become pressing This is true across a wide range of sectors including but not limited to trade and investment crime and terrorism and human rights Indonesia s democratization after the fall of Soeharto in 1998 triggered massive social and political changes that opened up this diverse and formerly tightly controlled society Law reform was a key driver of Indonesia s transformation and its full effect remains to be seen This book offers clear and detailed explanations of the foundations of Indonesia s legal system in the context of its legal reform and rapid development It offers succinct commentaries on a wide range of issues examining the judicial process the constitution corruption and the court system contract law administrative law foreign investment taxation Islamic law and family law It examines current substantive law and judicial interpretation and presents case studies of how the system operates in practice Written in an accessible and engaging style this book is an essential guide for readers seeking quick and clear answers to questions regarding the law and its application in Indonesia international law reports Lauterpacht, 1957 Antitrust Law Journal , 1986 The Irish Law Times and Solicitors' Journal , 1870 ECOOP 2011--Object-Oriented Programming Mira Mezini, 2011-07-18 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 25th European Conference on Object Oriented Programming ECOOP 2011 held in Lancaster UK in July 2011 The 26 revised full papers presented together with three keynote lectures were carefully reviewed and selected from a total of 100 submissions The papers cover topics such as empirical studies mining understanding recommending modularity modelling and refactoring aliasing and ownership as well as memory optimizations Copyright Law in an Age of Limitations and Exceptions Ruth L. Okediji, 2017-03-30 Copyright Law in an Age of Limitations and Exceptions brings together leading copyright scholars and the field s foremost authorities to consider the critical role of copyright law in shaping the complex social economic and political interaction critical for cultural productivity and human flourishing The book addresses defining issues facing copyright law today including justifications for copyright law s limitations and exceptions L Es the role of authors in copyright users rights fair use politics and reform the three step test in European copyright law the idea expression principle with respect to functional works limits on the use of L Es in scientific innovation and L Es as a tool for economic development in international copyright law The book also presents case studies on the historical development of the concept of neighboring rights and on Harvard Law School s pioneering model of global copyright education made possible by the exercise of L Es across national borders Research Handbook on the Economics of Intellectual Property Law Ben Depoorter, Peter Menell, David Schwartz, 2019 Both law and economics and intellectual property law have expanded dramatically in tandem over recent decades This field defining two volume Handbook featuring the leading legal empirical and law and economics scholars studying intellectual property rights provides wide ranging and in depth analysis both of the economic theory underpinning intellectual property law and the use of analytical methods to study it Antitrust Law and Intellectual Property Rights Christopher R. Leslie, 2011 In Antitrust Law and Intellectual Property Rights Cases and Materials Christopher R Leslie describes how patents copyrights and trademarks confer exclusionary rights on their owners and how firms sometimes exercise this exclusionary power in ways that exceed the legitimate bounds of their intellectual property rights Leslie explains that while substantive intellectual property law defines the scope of the exclusionary rights antitrust law often provides the most important consequences when owners of intellectual property misuse their rights in a way that harms consumers or illegitimately excludes competitors Antitrust law defines the limits of what intellectual property owners can do with their IP rights In this book Leslie explores what conduct firms can and cannot engage in while acquiring and exploiting their intellectual property rights and surveys those aspects of antitrust law that are necessary for both antitrust practitioners and intellectual property attorneys to understand This book is ideal for an advanced antitrust course in a JD program In addition to building on basic antitrust concepts it fills in a gap that is often missing in basic antitrust courses yet critical for an intellectual property lawyer the intersection of intellectual property and antitrust law The relationship between intellectual property and antitrust is particularly valuable as an increasing number of law schools offer specializations and LL.M.s in intellectual property This book also provides meaningful material for both undergraduate and graduate business schools programs because it explains how antitrust law limits the marshalling of intellectual property rights
