Great Cavalry Charge Joe Robinson,Janet Robinson,Francis Hendriks,2017-05-03 The Battle of the Silver Helmets was an engagement orchestrated according to the previous successes of the cavalry of Frederick the Great It was staged so that the magnificently equipped and trained German Fourth Cavalry Division would charge into glory sabres rattling instead 24 German officers 468 men and 843 horses were lost during the eight separate charges conducted that day The entire right wing of the Imperial German Army consisted of only nine cavalry brigades in the Schlieffen Plan and in the battle of 12 August 1914 two of these brigades were catastrophically beaten This battle has not yet been explored in the English language because it took place before the British Expeditionary Force BEF landed in the Channel ports and well before any American involvement British historians have also generally focused on Germany s efforts to enter Belgium through the forts at Li ge which are east of Halen However the Battle of the Silver Helmets so impacted century old cavalry tradition that large scale charges would never again be attempted on the Western Front Thoroughly researched and hugely revelatory The Last Great Cavalry Charge is a blow by blow account of the moment that the cavalry went from a prestigious pivotal role in German Army tactics to obsolescence in the face of newly mechanised infantry It provides essential and moving insight into the wider socio cultural repercussions of technical military innovations in the First World War Elite Bastards Edward L. Dvorak,2023-08-31 The quintessential first person combat memoir of a special forces soldier fighting in the jungles of

Vietnam This is the quintessential first person combat memoir of a special forces soldier at war Edward Dvorak joined the 173rd Airborne Brigade in Vietnam in the summer of 1967 He then joined Company F 51st Infantry Long Range Patrol Airborne For Dvorak and his buddies of Company F LRP their real training started with the MACV Military Assistant Command Vietnam Recondo School at the 5th Special Forces Compound in Nha Trang South Vietnam That training culminated with an actual Combat LRP mission If you lived through the patrol you graduated Dvorak would remain with Company F for 19 months going on dozens of combat patrols deep behind enemy lines
