Lensing, 2018-06-09 Over sixty years after his death Wallace Stevens remains one of the major figures of American modernist poetry celebrated for his masterful style formal rigor and aesthetic investigations of the natural political and metaphysical worlds In Making the Poem noted Stevens scholar George S. Lensing explores the poet's progress in the creation of his body of work considering its development composition and reception Drawing on little known sources and nuanced readings of Stevens texts Lensing expands the customary view of the poet's creative approaches This wide ranging study extends from the origins and overlapping themes of well known poems through the social and political backgrounds that marked Stevens work to the prosodic and musical elements central to his style Making the Poem features a dynamic new reading of the important early poem Sea Surface Full of Clouds viewing it alongside his wife Elsie's journal describing the sea voyage that inspired the poem and an extensive multiperspective treatment of the widely anthologized The Idea of Order at Key West as well as a careful excavation of the poem Mozart 1935 in the context of the U.S. Great Depression Lensing concludes with a discussion of the gradual and sometimes reluctant recognition Stevens work received from poets and critics in Great Britain and Ireland Stemming from decades of research and writing Making the Poem Stevens Approaches presents a holistic view of his creative achievements and a wealth of new material for readers to draw upon in their future encounters with the poetry of Wallace Stevens , M-Z Alexander Schmidt, 1886 Twelfth night. The Private Correspondence of David Garrick with the Most Celebrated Persons of his Time, 2013. David Garrick 1717-79 is synonymous with the golden age of English theatre. Widely acclaimed as an actor, he went on to become a shrewd theatre manager at Drury Lane. His years in charge of the Theatre Royal ensured its dramatic ascendancy and burnished his own considerable celebrity. These letters, first published in 1831, reveal Garrick's gregarious nature and shed light on his many friendships with leading ladies, fellow actors, contemporary playwrights, and members of high society. His love of Shakespeare's work is also evident, highlighting Garrick's pivotal role in ensuring the plays became established in the national consciousness. This two-volume collection was edited by James Boaden 1762-1839, who published several theatrical biographies, also reissued in this series. Volume 2 contains letters from the final years of Garrick's life, notably his correspondence in French with influential figures in Parisian theatre.

Concordance to the French Poetry and Prose of John Gower. R. F. Yeager, Mark West, Robin L. Hinson, 2012-01-01. That the poet John Gower was a major literary figure in England at the close of the fourteenth century is no longer in question. Scholarly attention paid to him and to his work over the past twenty-five years has redeemed him from an undeserved obscurity imposed by the preceding two hundred years. The facts of his life and career are now documented, and recent critical assessment has placed his achievement most accurately alongside Chaucer's, Langland's, and the Gawain poet's. Unique among his contemporaries, all of whom undoubtedly read and used French in some measure, Gower alone has left us a significant body of verse and prose in Anglo-Norman, chiefly the twelve stanza poem Mirour de l'Omme, the Cinkante Balades, and the Traiti pour les amantz marietz. We are offered in this concordance of his Anglo-Norman work a unique opportunity to view a poetic language as it was written and read in England until Gower's death in 1408 and beyond.
