Graduate Certificate in Museum Studies and Material Culture Reflection Essay

The Museum Studies Certificate Program introduced me to a wealth of perspectives on museological research and challenged me to think critically about the ethics of representation within cultural institutions and museum spaces. Obtaining a Master's degree in American Studies is part of a career change, and the Certificate program gave me the opportunity to step out of my academic comfort zone and apply my research processes to understanding cultural performance as a mode of presentation. As I am not a material culturalist, archivist, anthropologist or archeologist, my approach to the Certificate was perhaps a bit different than my fellow graduate students. With Dr. Judith Freidenberg's permission, I shaped my course of study around issues of research and performance instead of material culture or anthropological theory. When I enrolled in the program during my second semester, my mind was steeped in the topics of my Master's thesis: subcultural theory and performances of middle aged identities in nightclub spaces, and cultural performance was not yet on my academic radar.

During the Introduction to Museum Studies seminar, my interest was piqued by issues of shared curatorial authority and representation, particularly during the readings on the Smithsonian Folklife Festival, where I was introduced to the problematic issues of representation embedded in "exhibiting" living cultures, as well as the idea that curation can hold the possibility to reimagine power relationships - at least to some extent - in settings that go beyond the traditional brick and mortar museum setting which enshrines objects. My general approach to

Photorealistic Rendering in Computer Graphics Pere Brunet, Frederik W. Jansen, 2012-12-06 Photorealistic rendering strives to generate images from computer modeled scenes with an image quality as close to real life as possible A major issue in rendering is simulation of local and global light reflection in a scene Both ray tracing and radiosity algorithms capture only some of the possible light reflection phenomena Recently developed two pass algorithms combine the ray tracing and radiosity approaches and are able to capture the whole range of light reflection This book is a collection of papers discussing the latest developments including a new range of improvements in stochastic sampling strategies radiosity form factor calculation and parallel processing for ray tracing and radiosity A number of papers on rendering applications in interior design lighting design and remote sensing conclude the volume The contributions are revised versions of papers originally presented at the Second Eurographics Workshop on Rendering held in Barcelona Spain in May 1991 The book fully reflects the state of the art in rendering and presents a wide variety of novel techniques It will interest researchers and students in computer graphics as well as designers who want to apply rendering techniques for realistic simulation in lighting design interior design and architecture The Humble Essay Roy K. Humble, 2023-04-01 The Humble Essay is so much more than a writing textbook It gives you tools tips and tricks that actually explain what a writer does It doesn't sugarcoat the process or dumb down the very real challenges that entering a college writing space requires This book is more like a friend It's the kind of friend that will coach you through a tough time and encourage you and it will make you laugh while you go through it It's the kind of friend who holds your hair back when you're sick of writing and gives you the courage to try again Roy K Humble is the kind of writing teacher who understands the struggle of learning how to write like a college student and doesn't just tell you what you want to hear His lessons here are profound but in the sense that they are delivered by someone who wants you to feel included in the conversation about what good college writing should be He writes to students in language they can understand without becoming English majors and with just enough humor to keep them reading He writes for faculty moving step by step through the unadorned guiding principles of effective formal writing so that faculty have a great framework on which to build their classes Perhaps most importantly Humble understands that the price of a book matters to students so his books are affordable From every perspective Humble gets it The Humble Essay has students covered on these important topics Understanding the college essay as an idea Grasping the stages of the writing process Organizing the college essay around cohesive paragraphs Thinking for yourself as a college student Gathering and synthesizing sources and information Guiding readers through a thoughtful college essay intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions. This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning. As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured. Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it. This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy. It is a confluence of threats, challenges and opportunities for all religions. This volume explores the contours of pressures, changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing. By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures. The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so. Contributors: Vincent J. Cornell, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Sidney H. Griffith, Maria Reis, Habito B. Barry, Levy Deepak Sarma, Michael von Brück. ABOUT VOLUME FIVE: The chapters collected in this book, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, address the subject of religious leadership. The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership. As such, it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place. What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world? To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age? One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges, opportunities and strategies across religious traditions. Studying the theme across six faith traditions: Christianity, Islam, Judaism, Sikhism, Hinduism and Buddhism. The Future of Religious Leadership: World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present-day religious leadership. Contributors: Awet Andemicael, Timothy J. Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Anantanand Rambachan, Maria Reis, Habito Meir Sender, Balwant Singh Dhillon, Miroslav Volf. VOLUME SIX: One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other. The question touches the roots of our theological views. The Religious Other: Hostility, Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness. How does one move from hostility to hospitality? How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds? What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness? This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology. By including Abrahamic and non-Abrahamic traditions, it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives, highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another. Contributors: Vincent J. Cornell, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Richard P. Hayes, Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks, Deepak Sarma, Stephen W. Sykes, Dharma Master Hsin Tao, Ashok Vohra.
