Conference,2000-01-01 1998 had seen further efforts by the European Commission to reduce the number of natural monopolies in the air transport market The Council of the EU discussed a Directive aimed at regulating airport practices by limiting the level of charges putting an end to unfair practices and improving transparency for users At the same time the Commission set conditions on airline alliances after having carried out investigations into several alliances between EU and US carriers Another significant issue in 1998 has been the review of conditions of carriage and tickets in consultation with the Commission and with consumer organisations as well as the proposal for a revision of Regulation No 895/91 regarding denied boarding compensation Also in high profile during 1998 has been the proposal for a multilateral treaty between the EU and Eastern European countries regarding the adoption of the air law regime of the EU and EU competition law which would create a common European aviation area These various developments have provided the principal topics for discussion at the Association's annual conference for 1998 Brancker

Iata and what it Does J. W. S. Brancker, 1977 From the John Holmes Library collection Behind and Beyond the Chicago Convention Pablo Mendes De Leon, Niall Buissing, 2019-08-21 Behind and Beyond the Chicago Convention The Evolution of Aerial Sovereignty Edited by Pablo Mendes de Leon effect of new methods of communication such as Global Navigation Satellite Systems GNSS distinction between civil and State aircraft economic regulation as established under air services agreements between States cybersecurity measures compensation for damages liberalisation of air services role of regional aviation organisations in particular that of the European Union position of airlines airports and providers of air navigation services and territorial jurisdiction with respect to areas lacking a universally accepted sovereign status Annexes include the original texts of the Paris Convention 1919 and the Chicago Convention 1944 With its incisive perceptions put forward by distinguished aviation lawyers including an exploration of the absolute character of sovereignty this book is without peer in its analysis of how the Chicago Convention affects the regulation of international civil aviation and the operation of air services Its multifaceted approach towards the current state of affairs from a legal and policy perspective will be welcomed by practitioners and law firms in the field and civil aviation authorities as well as by academics and business persons with a stake in aviation Convention on International Civil Aviation Ruwantissa Abeyratne, 2013-08-04 This book is both a repertory guide to the Convention on International Civil Aviation Chicago Convention as well as a legal analysis of the provisions of the treaty It traces action taken by the ICAO Assembly and the Council in the implementation of the Convention from the first ICAO Assembly in 1947 until 2012 Above all the book offers a commentary on the functional and moral fabric of the Chicago Convention which is not only a multilateral legal instrument that sets out basic principles of air navigation and air transport but also serves as a moral compass that brings the people of the world together The teleological nature of the Chicago Convention is reflected from the outset from its Preamble which sets the tone and philosophy of the Convention that aviation builds friendship and understanding among all people to its technical provisions that range from rules of the air to landing at airports and customs and immigration procedures The book effectively demonstrates the Aristotelian principle that rules make people good by forming habits in them Standardization or in other words compliance is the driver of the Convention that keeps aviation safe regular efficient and economical To that end this book traces and details the sustained relevance of the Chicago Convention and the efforts of ICAO and the international aviation community towards keeping air transport on track and ready for its future exponential growth both in letter and in spirit
