Language Use And Language Learning In Clil Classrooms:

Language Use and Language Learning in CLIL Classrooms Christiane Dalton-Puffer, Tarja Nikula, Ute Smit, 2010 This volume explores a highly topical issue in second and foreign language education the spreading practice in mainstream education to teach content subjects through a foreign language CLIL has been enthusiastically embraced as a language enrichment measure in many contexts and finally research can offer principled insights into its dynamics and potentials The editors introductory and concluding chapters offer a synthesis of current CLIL research as well as a critical discussion of unresolved issues relating both to theoretical concerns and research practice The individual contributions by authors from a range of European contexts report on current empirical research in this dynamic field The focus of these chapters ranges from theoretical to empirical from learning outcomes to classroom talk examining both the written and spoken mode across secondary and tertiary educational contexts This volume is a valuable resource not only for researchers and teachers but also for policy makers

Content-based Language Learning in Multilingual Educational Environments Maria Juan-Garau, Joana Salazar-Noguera, 2014-11-17 The spread of English as an international language along with the desire to maintain local languages lead us to consider multilingualism as the norm rather than the exception Consequently bi multilingual education has bloomed over the last decades This volume deals with one such type of education currently in the spotlight as an essentially European strategy to multilingualism CLIL Content and Language Integrated Learning in which curricular content is taught through a foreign language The book contributes new empirical evidence on its effects on linguistic and attitudinal outcomes focusing on bi multilingual learners who acquire English as an additional language Moreover it presents critical analyses of factors influencing multilingual education the effects of CLIL on both language and content learning and the contrast between CLIL and other models of instruction The research presented suggests that CLIL can greatly enhance language acquisition in multilingual settings

Discourse in Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) Classrooms Christiane Dalton-Puffer, 2007-09-27 The label CLIL stands for classrooms where a foreign language English is used as a medium of instruction in content subjects This book provides a first in depth analysis of the kind of communicative abilities which are embodied in such CLIL classrooms It examines teacher and student talk at secondary school level from different discourse analytic angles taking into account the interpersonal pragmatics of classroom discourse and how school subjects are talked into being during lessons The analysis shows how CLIL classroom interaction is strongly shaped by its institutional context which in turn conditions the ways in which students experience use and learn the target language The research presented here suggests that CLIL programmes require more explicit language learning goals in order to fully exploit their potential for furthering the learners appropriation of a foreign language as a medium of learning
