Validating Technological Innovation David

Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders Zimbabwe Journal of Educational Research, 2005

A School in Africa A. Megahey, 2005-06-09 When Peterhouse School opened in 1955 the British Empire in Africa was still intact and the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland had just come into being It was a boarding school founded on the British model but with the intention that it would adapt all that is best in the Public School tradition to African conditions The story of Peterhouse is not only about work and sport music and drama chapel and syllabus changes It is set in the context of educational development and political changes in a Southern Africa country The school became a pioneering multi racial institution in white Rhodesia shared the sufferings of the country during the bush war expanded greatly in the new Zimbabwe survived the contradictions of a black Marxist government and has kept its firm commitment to being a Church School Despite the uncertainties and challenges of the new century this is a story of faith and vision
