horsemen were best represented by the 1st Cavalry Brigade later Division which saw combat in Poland the Netherlands France Russia and Hungary Their service however came to be cruelly dishonored by the horsemen of the 8th Waffen SS Cavalry Division a unit whose troopers spent more time killing civilians than fighting enemy soldiers Throughout the story of these formations and drawing extensively on both primary and secondary sources Dorondo shows how the cavalry's tradition carried on in a German and European world undergoing rapid military industrialization after the mid nineteenth century And though Riders of the Apocalypse focuses on the German element of this tradition it also notes other countries continuing and in the case of Russia much more extensive use of combat horsemen after 1900 However precisely because the Nazi regime devoted so much effort to portray Germany's armed forces as fully modern and mechanized the combat effectiveness of so many German horsemen on the battlefields of Europe until 1945 remains a story that deserves to be more widely known Dorondo's work does much to tell that story
