The Guardian Byron Rogers latest collection of travel pieces follows the winning formula of his previous book An Audience with an Elephant as he goes in search of a remarkable array of quirky whimsical and singular individuals. But in addition to meeting a pensioner on a holiday who decided to swim across the Amazon this book sees Rogers meeting a number of undeniably famous people. But as one might expect Rogers encounters with celebrity have their own unexpected outcomes. Burt Lancaster rants to him about transsexuality Rita Hayworth is most worried about her neighbor's TV aerial and a retired star of the silent screen turns out to live in Henley on Thames. It is with the delicacy and determination of an archaeologist and the wit of a publican and far sightedness of a dreamer that Rogers excavates people and places.
