justice and political reform championing Eduardo Galeano's notion that utopia always stands at the horizon and one must keep walking to reach it. Activist, journalist, writer, translator, but also musician, disability rights champion, home maker and wife, her multiple and often conflicting roles emerge in a rich and multifaceted writing increasingly balanced between the public and the private history with a capital H and personal memoir. Her first major success, Casalinghitudine Keeping House, explores the juncture of the public and the personal as important historical moments merge with her workaday memories of cooking. Her remarkable historical novel Il Gioco dei Regni The Game of Kingdoms traces her family history from the early 20th century through the post war period, chronicling their personal lives and their involvement in Italian politics and Jewish intellectual life. Subsequent works such as Taccuino di un ultimista Notebook of a Meek Woman and Passami il sale Pass me the Salt tackle the difficulties of negotiating life as a political figure, wife and mother of a disabled son. In works such as Eppure And Yet Le Merendanze Afternoon Snacks and Una storia chiusa A Closed Story, as well as Il lupo mercante The Mongering Wolf and Via Ripetta 155, Ripetta Street, she again intertwines private experiences and public circumstances, raising questions related to gender, class, disability, the elderly and sustainability. This is the first volume that brings together the critical aspects of Clara Sereni's work, providing a comprehensive view of the writer, the intellectual, the politician and the woman. As we reflect on the 20th century, Sereni's long spanning writing career stands as an important document of its struggles, its conflicts and, like Sereni herself, its enduring idealism.

A History of Modern Psychology David C. Ludden, Jr., 2025-05-28. A History of Modern Psychology: The Quest for a Science of the Mind describes the evolution of psychology into the twenty first century with coverage of recent events and findings that transform our understanding of the past. With a topical approach that presents key thinkers within the context of schools of thought, students are able to see how philosophers, researchers and academics influenced one another to create the rich and diverse landscape of modern psychology in a global context. In the new Second Edition, the author expands coverage of unsung pioneers: philosopher Al Balkhi, zoologist Charles Henry Turner, psychiatrist Grunya Sukhareva and others. He revisits the legacy of Francis Galton, explores the Vygotsky boom and includes new discussion of the impact of Philip Zimbardo's Stanford Prison Experiment. Through detailed timelines and features such as Looking Back and Looking Ahead, Ludden gives students a deeper appreciation for the transference of knowledge that shaped the field.

A Best-Selling Hebrew Book of the Modern Era David B. Ruderman, 2014-12-01. The history of a single book sheds light on the beginnings of modern Jewish thought. In 1797, in what is now the Czech Republic, Pinchas Hurwitz published Book of the Covenant. Nominally an extended commentary on a sixteenth century kabbalist text, Pinchas's publication was in fact a compendium of scientific knowledge and a manual of moral behavior. Its popularity stemmed from its ability to present the scientific advances and moral cosmopolitanism of its day in the context of Jewish legal and mystical tradition. Describing the latest developments in science and philosophy in the sacred language of Hebrew, Hurwitz argued that an intellectual understanding of the cosmos was not at odds with, but actually key to,
