Human Rights Commission Of Pakistan Report 2004:

Non-Muslims in Muslim Majority Societies - With Focus on the Middle East and Pakistan Kajsa Ahlstrand, Goran Gunner, 2009-04-01 In a world where almost all societies are multi religious and multi ethnic we need to study how social cohesion can be achieved in different contexts In some geographical areas as in the Middle East and the Indian subcontinent people of different religious belonging have through the ages lived side by side sometimes in harmony and sometimes in dissonance In other geographical regions as in Scandinavia societies have been quite religiously homogeneous but only recently challenged by immigration The implication in both locations is that the relation between religious minority and majority is on the agenda In order to discuss the situation for Non Muslims in Muslim majority societies a consultation was convened with both Muslim and Christian participants from Pakistan Palestine Lebanon and Sweden Some of the participants work in academic settings others in faith based organizations some in jurisprudence and others with theological issues This book is the result of that consultation the articles are works in progress and they remain tentative The intention with this anthology is to trigger reflection and further thinking It presents articles that discuss issues such as freedom of religion minority rights secular and religious legislation and inter religious dialogue in Muslim majority societies Contributors include Kajsa Ahlstrand G ran Gunner Mustafa Abu Sway Johan G rde Yasmin Haider Jan Hj rpe M Aslam Khaki Bernard Sabella Mehboob Sada Guirguis Ibrahim Saleh and Ahmad Salim This book is the second volume in Church of Sweden Research Series

Economic Integration in South Asia Muinul Islam, Nitai Chandra Nag, 2010 Economic Integration in South Asia Issues and Pathways is one of the volumes of the series titled Imagine a New South Asia presented by ActionAid International Asia This volume envisions a new South Asia free from human deprivation and poverty where countries will become successful proud and inclusive societies This book demonstrates how South Asian countries can learn from the best practices in the region as well as from their failures and also by trying to emulate the successful strategies of introducing egalitarian education and health systems of East Asia China and Southeast Asian countries Rich in analysis and research this volume seeks an alternative people centred perspective and takes into account all those voices that have so long been unheard in policy making processes through reviews of case studies Not only will the findings of this volume be useful in conducting campaigns for appropriate policy and mindset changes but these will also eventually make the emergence of a highly integrated South Asia truly possible

Economic Integration in South Asia: Issues and Pathways Action Aid International, 2010 Economic Integration in South Asia Issues and Pathways is one of the volumes of the series Imagine a New South Asia presented by ActionAid International Asia It envisions a new South Asia free from human deprivation and demonstrates how South Asian countries can learn from the best practices in the region as well as from their failures and also by trying to emulate the successful strategies of East Asia China and Southeast Asian countries to introduce education and health systems

killing is considered the worst form of domestic violence against human beings particularly against women It is clear that societies across the world through their laws and their courts continue to countenance legal defences which overwhelmingly benefit males committing violence against females Despite the statistics that honour killings are being reported from all over the world the greatest number of shocking reports of honour killings come from Muslim countries Unfortunately Pakistan is among those countries where women are facing various forms of violence in the name of religion customs and traditions and cases of honour killing are regularly reported there It is imperative to understand and see killings in the name of honour from the perspective of those who have been directly affected by the socio religious cultural norms which condone them The findings gathered here show that honour killing is not only family or community violence or a tradition to preserve honour but that behind these killings ulterior purposes are being served and therefore the number of the killings is increasing every year in Pakistan This book will allow the reader to understand precisely the menace of honour killing and to consider how it can be addressed to save innocent lives and to stop these severe violations of human rights A Fragile Future Ahmed

Rashid,2009-04-07 A fascinating up to date look at the roots of our financial crisis from the New York Times bestselling author Kevin Phillips Descent into Chaos is Ahmed Rashid s sweeping brilliant exploration of the failure of the United States to secure peace and nourish democracy in Pakistan and Afghanistan after the removal of the Taliban following 9 11 Thoroughly researched and powerfully written it has been hailed from all corners as one of the most important books on the effects of American policy in the Middle East to appear in some time In this searching update Rashid takes stock of events in Pakistan since the book s publication including the 2008 elections the end of the Musharraf era and the further resurgence of the Taliban Up from Chaos makes the convincing case that if peace is to come to central Asia Pakistan remains the key Interrogating Imperialism N. Inayatullah,R. Riley,2006-12-11 A collection of multiple perspectives on the war on terror and the new imperialism Looking at the imperialism and the war on terror through a lens focused on gender and race the contributors expose the limitations of the current popular discourse and help to uncover possibilities not yet apparent in that same discourse Women's Journey to Empowerment in the 21st Century Kristen Zaleski,Annalisa V. Enrile,Eugenia L.

Weiss,2020 Written through the lens of transnational feminism Women s Journey to Empowerment in the 21st Century offers a global view into the patriarchal attitudes that shape cultural practices that oppress women and continue to take form in the modern era By examining a range of issues the book compels readers to utilize a contextual framework in taking a closer look at contemporary violence and oppression against women in our world Trafficking in Human Beings Silvia Scarpa,2008

This text analyses the various international legal instruments regulating people trafficking including treaties soft law and the definition contained in the UN Trafficking Protocol and argues that trafficking in persons ought rightly to be considered a part of jus cogens The Rule of Law, Freedom of Expression and Islamic Law Hossein Esmaeili,Irmgard

Marboe,Javaid Rehman,2017-12-14 The importance of the rule of law is universally recognised and of fundamental value for most societies Establishing and promoting the rule of law in the Muslim world particularly in the Middle East North Africa and Central Asia has become a pressing but complicated issue These states have Muslim majority populations and the religion of Islam has an important role in the traditional structures of their societies While the Muslim world is taking gradual steps towards the establishment of rule of law systems most Muslim majority countries may not yet have effective legal systems with independent judiciaries which would allow the state and institutions to be controlled by an effective rule of law system One important aspect of the rule of law is freedom of expression Given the sensitivity of Muslim societies in relation to their sacred beliefs freedom of expression as an international human rights issue has raised some controversial cases This book drawing on both International and Islamic Law explores the rule of law and freedom of expression and its practical application in the Muslim world

Al Qaeda's Global Crisis V. G. Julie Rajan, 2015-01-30 Examines Al Qaida's crisis of support and tensions with regional affiliates of its global jihad Fills a gap in the literature by focusing on takfir and the random violence it justifies against other Muslims Author is a recognised expert in this field Will be of much interest to students of Al Qaida global jihadism terrorism Islamism Middle Eastern Studies Asian Studies intelligence security studies and IR in general

Women and Crime Stacy L. Mallicoat, 2011-12-05 Women and Crime A Text Reader part of the text reader series in criminology and criminal justice incorporates contemporary and classic readings some including policy implications accompanied by student friendly authored text This unique format provides a theoretical framework and context for students The comprehensive coverage of the book includes the history and theories of female offending offenders and their crimes processing and sentencing of female offenders women in prison women and victimization women and work in the criminal justice system juveniles and crime and international crime Race and diversity will be an underlying theme throughout the text

The Last Holdouts , Kashmir Waheguru Pal Singh Sidhu, Bushra Asif, Cyrus Samii, 2006 Offers an overview of the state of affairs and an examination of the potential for peaceful resolution Representing all sides in the conflict over Kashmir this book provides a forum for discussion of proposals for ending the conflict and of the possible paths toward settlement

Creating Criminals Vivien Stern, 2013-07-18 Market society is producing more crime around the world More acts are being defined as crimes Ever increasing numbers of people are classified as criminals and more are being locked up in prison With globalization the crime and punishment problem is no longer insulated from pressures beyond national borders The rich may retreat behind their expensive security into gated communities but the poor are more and more at the mercy of criminals and corrupt policing Yet Vivien Stern argues the trends towards more criminalization and more imprisonment are not making for more effective crime control or safer communities This important book demonstrates that the prospects for the future are serious unless NGOs and reformers join in a new movement for reform that gives more control of justice policy back to communities and neighbourhoods

The Human Right to Water Inga Winkler, 2014-08-14 The United Nations General Assembly and the Human Rights Council recognised the human right to water in 2010 This formal recognition has put the issue high on the international agenda but by itself leaves many questions unanswered This book addresses this gap and clarifies the legal status and meaning of the right to water through a detailed analysis of its legal foundations legal nature normative content and corresponding State obligations The human right to water has wide ranging implications for the distribution of water Examining these implications requires putting the right to water into the broader context of different water uses and analysing the linkages and competition with other human rights that depend on water for their realisation Water allocation is a highly political issue reflecting societal power relations with current priorities often benefitting the well off and powerful Human rights in contrast require prioritising the most basic needs of all people The human right to water has the potential to address these underlying structural causes of the lack of access to water rooted in inequalities and poverty by empowering people to hold the State accountable to live up to its human rights obligations and to demand that their basic needs are met with priority

State and Nation-Building in Pakistan Roger D. Long, Gurharpal Singh, Yunas Samad, Ian Talbot, 2015-10-08 Religion violence and ethnicity are all intertwined in the history of Pakistan The entrenchment of landed interests operationalized through violence ethnic identity and power through successive regimes has created a system of authoritarian clientalism This book offers comparative historicist and multidisciplinary views on the role of identity politics in the development of Pakistan Bringing together perspectives on the dynamics of state building the book provides insights into contemporary processes of national contestation which are crucially affected by their treatment in the world media and by the reactions they elicit within an increasingly globalised polity It investigates the resilience of landed elites to political and social change and in the years after partition looks at the impact on land holdings of population transfer It goes on to discuss religious identities and their role in both the construction of national identity and in the development of sectarianism The book highlights how ethnicity and identity politics are an enduring marker in Pakistani politics and why they are increasingly powerful and influential An insightful collection on a range of perspectives on the dynamics of identity politics and the nation state this book on Pakistan will be a useful contribution to South Asian Politics South Asian History and Islamic Studies

Countries at the Crossroads Freedom House (U.S.), 2006 Countries at the Crossroads is an annual survey of government performance in 30 key countries worldwide that are at a critical crossroads in determining their political future Crossroads provides a unique comparative tool for assessing government performance in the areas of accountability and public voice civil liberties rule of law and anticorruption and transparency The countries evaluated in Crossroads represent a range of governments traditional or constitutional monarchies one party states or outright dictatorships failed states states where reforms have stalled or lagged behind and states that suffer from insurgencies The survey provides a comparative in depth assessment of democratic governance intended to help government officials scholars educators nongovernmental organizations and the media identify areas of progress and highlight points of concern For the international community the survey helps target diplomatic efforts and
