

A composite image featuring a man's face, likely a Black man, with a serious expression. The face is superimposed over a background of the American flag, with the stars and stripes visible. The image has a high-contrast, almost black and white aesthetic with some color saturation, particularly in the reds of the flag and the man's eyes.

How Does It Feel To Be A Problem:

How Does It Feel to Be a Problem? Moustafa Bayoumi, 2009-07-28 Bayoumi offers a revealing portrait of life for people who are often scrutinized but seldom heard from Booklist starred review Wholly intelligent and sensitively drawn How Does It Feel to Be a Problem is an important investigation into the hearts and minds of young Arab Americans This significant and eminently readable work breaks through preconceptions and delivers a fresh take on a unique and vital community Moustafa Bayoumi's voice is refreshingly frank personable and true Diana Abu Jaber author of Origin Crescent and The Language of Baklava An eye opening look at how young Arab and Muslim Americans are forging lives for themselves in a country that often mistakes them for the enemy Just over a century ago W E B Du Bois posed a probing question in his classic The Souls of Black Folk How does it feel to be a problem Now Moustafa Bayoumi asks the same about America's new problem Arab and Muslim Americans Bayoumi takes readers into the lives of seven twenty somethings living in Brooklyn home to the largest Arab American population in the United States He moves beyond stereotypes and clichés to reveal their often unseen struggles from being subjected to government surveillance to the indignities of workplace discrimination Through it all these young men and women persevere through triumphs and setbacks as they help weave the tapestry of a new society that is at its heart purely American

Promoting Racial Literacy in Schools Jr. Stevenson, Howard C. Stevenson, 2014-01-03 Based on extensive research this provocative volume explores how schools are places where racial conflicts often remain hidden at the expense of a healthy school climate and the well being of other students of colour Most schools fail to act on racial microaggressions because the stress of negotiating such conflicts is extremely high due to fears of incompetence public exposure and accusation Instead of facing these conflicts head on schools perpetuate a set of avoidance or coping strategies The author of this much needed book uncovers how racial stress undermines student achievement Students educators and social service support staff will find workable strategies to improve their racial literacy skills to read recast and resolve racially stressful encounters when they happen This book features a model that applies culturally relevant behavioural stress management strategies to problem solve racial stress in schools examples demonstrating workable solutions relevant within predominantly White schools for students parents teachers and administrators measurable outcomes and strategies for developing racial literacy skills that can be integrated into the K 12 curriculum and teacher professional development and teaching and leadership skills that will create a more tolerant and supportive school environment for all students

Fearless Dialogues Gregory C. Ellison II, 2017-11-10 Drawing on all the community's collective voices from doctors to drug dealers Fearless Dialogues is a groundbreaking program that seeks real solutions to problems of chronic unemployment violence and hopelessness In cities around the United States and now the world the program's founder Gregory C Ellison and his team create conversations among community members who have never spoken to one another the goal of which are real implementable and lasting changes to the life of the community These community transformations are based on both face to face encounters and substantive analysis of the problems the community faces In Fearless Dialogues A New Movement for Justice Ellison makes this same kind of analysis available to readers walking them through the steps that must be taken to find common ground in our divided communities and then to implement genuine and lasting change Habits of Whiteness Terrance MacMullan,2009-03-26 Habits of Whiteness offers a new way to talk about race and racism by focusing on racial habits and how to change them According to Terrance MacMullan the concept of racial whiteness has undermined attempts to create a truly democratic society in the United States By getting to the core of the racism that lives on in unrecognized habits MacMullan argues clearly and charitably for white folk to recognize the distance between their color blind ideals and their actual behavior Revitalizing the work of W E B Du Bois and John Dewey MacMullan shows how it is possible to reconstruct racial habits and close the gap between people This forthright and persuasive analysis of the impulses of whiteness ultimately reorganizes them into something more compatible with our country s increasingly multicultural heritage

David Walker Sherrow O. Pinder,2024-05-07 David Walker a free with a small f black man was one of the most significant African American abolitionists of the nineteenth century Born in a slave society before moving to Boston where after the American Revolutionary War slavery was abolished Walker devoted his life to fighting slavery and antiblack racism In this book Sherrow O Pinder brings to light Walker s lived experience activism and the synchronizing of his Christian principles and reformist radicalism to demonstrate why and how slavery must be eliminated Walker s call for blacks to regain their natural rights culminated in his Appeal to the Coloured Citizens of the World an enormously influential work that is now considered a founding text of black studies Today given the escalation of antiblack racism manifested in the upholding of institutionalized violence by the state and the continued marginality of African Americans we cannot afford to forget Walker s push for racial egalitarianism it is more urgent than ever White Self-Criticality beyond Anti-racism George Yancy,2014-10-21 White Self Criticality beyond Anti racism powerfully emphasizes the significance of humility vulnerability anxiety questions of complicity and how being a good white is implicated in racial injustice This collection sets a new precedent for critical race scholarship and critical whiteness studies to take into consideration what it means specifically to be a white problem rather than simply restrict scholarship to the problem of white privilege and white normative invisibility Ultimately the text challenges the contemporary rhetoric of a color blind or color evasive world in a discourse that is critically engaging and sophisticated accessible and persuasive The Souls of Black Folk William Edward Burghardt Du Bois,1903 In the Shadow of Du Bois Robert Gooding-Williams,2011-04-15 Here in a major addition to American studies and the first book length philosophical treatment of Du Bois s thought Robert Gooding Williams examines the conceptual foundations of Du Bois s interpretation of black politics Black Bodies, White Gazes George Yancy,2016-11-02 Following the deaths of Trayvon Martin and other black youths in recent years students on campuses across America have joined professors and activists in calling for justice and increased awareness that Black Lives Matter In this second edition of his trenchant and provocative book George Yancy offers students the theoretical framework they crave for understanding the violence perpetrated against the Black body Drawing from the lives of Ossie Davis Frantz Fanon Malcolm X and W E B Du Bois as well as his own experience and fully updated to account for what has transpired since the rise of the Black Lives Matter movement Yancy provides an invaluable resource for students and teachers of courses in African American Studies African American History Philosophy of Race and anyone else who wishes to examine what it means to be Black in America

Disability & the Politics of Education Susan Lynn Gabel, Scot Danforth, 2008 Disability and the Politics of Education An International Reader is a rich resource that deals comprehensively with the many aspects of the complex topic of disability studies in education For nearly two decades global attention has been given to education as a human right through global initiatives such as Education for All EFA and the Salamanca Statement Yet according to UNESCO reaching the goals of EFA remains one of the most daunting challenges facing the global community Today millions of the world's disabled children cannot obtain a basic childhood education particularly in countries with limited resources Even in the wealthiest countries many disabled children and youth are educationally segregated from the nondisabled particularly if they are labeled with significant cognitive impairment International agencies such as the United Nations and the World Bank have generated funds for educational development but unfortunately these funds are administered with the assumption that west is best thereby urging developing countries to mimic educational policies in the United States and the United Kingdom in order to prove their aid worthiness This McDonaldization of education reproduces the labeling resource allocation and social dynamics long criticized in disability studies The authors in this volume explore these subjects and other complexities of disability and the politics of education In doing so they demonstrate the importance and usefulness of international perspectives and comparative approaches

Where the Spirit Is R. Shea Watts, 2023-03-06 This dissertation explores the experiential contours of Pentecostalism as a liberative praxis The connection between Pentecostalism and social change is a burgeoning line of inquiry particularly in the Global South but this study focuses on the history of Pentecostalism in the US beginning with the production and circulation of the African American Spirituals Bringing theories of affect into conversation with ritual studies this interdisciplinary work traces personal stories and experiences from the author and examines them in light of Pentecostal traditions that stem from the Azusa Street Revival in Los Angeles California the birthplace of the Pentecostal movement William J Seymour's vision at Azusa was egalitarian and transgressed the societal boundaries and norms of race and gender in the early twentieth century Pentecostalism was and is informed by Black queer female and other voices often silent or rendered invisible Without this representation Pentecostalism is simply one tradition among many co-opted and appropriated for the ongoing colonial projects of the modern Western world Therefore this book explores Blackpentecostal tradition specifically The Fellowship of Affirming Ministries TFAM a predominately Black LGBTQ movement that integrates Pentecostal worship and theology with an inclusive liberative theology Idealism, Pragmatism, and

Feminism John Kaag, 2011-12-16 Idealism Pragmatism and Feminism provides an account of the life and writings of Ella Lyman Cabot 1866 1934 a woman who received formal training but not formal recognition in the field of classical American philosophy It highlights the themes of idealism pragmatism and feminism as they emerged in the course of career as an educational reformer and ethicist that spanned nearly four decades Cabot's writings developed in graduate seminars at Harvard and Radcliffe at the turn of the century complement and in many cases anticipate the thinking of the fathers of the American philosophical canon Charles Sanders Peirce Josiah Royce William James and John Dewey Her formal philosophical writing focuses on the concepts of growth creativity and the moral imagination a fact that is especially interesting given that these concepts are developed by a woman who faced serious obstacles in her personal and intellectual development Indeed these concepts are not merely philosophical ideals but practical tools that Ella Lyman Cabot used to negotiate the gender roles and intellectual marginalization that she faces at the turn of the century The discipline of philosophy was very slow to incorporate the insights of women into its self definition An analysis of the writings of Ella Lyman Cabot reveals this point but also the pointed ways in which she sought to express her genuinely creative insights

The Pentecostal Hypothesis Nimi Wariboko, 2020-10-12 The Pentecostal Hypothesis is the capacity to resist conventional wisdom in social actions On a daily basis Pentecostals deploy or enact this capacity through the use of the formula It does not make sense but it makes spirit in their decision making processes This is an alternate way of knowing that is keyed to a particular interpretative understanding of Jesus Christ as constitutive of and normative for the good decisions relevant to human flourishing The book offers a critical philosophical analysis of the social ethical implications of this hypothesis intended for private decisions and social actions This text is ultimately a critique of Pentecostal reason In this book Wariboko explores the epistemological dimensions of everyday Pentecostal Christology their interpretation of Jesus's character and nature as epistemology For Pentecostals Jesus did not have an epistemology but the story of his life as a whole is an epistemology For them the validity of a truth claim is always informed by the story of Jesus that claims them the story that gives them the meaning and courage to affirm their decisions without fear of being contradicted by Enlightenment rationalism What kind of normative sway does this orientation to modernity have over Pentecostals pattern of thought This book configures the response to this question with profound insights into the convergence of epistemology and Christology within the impelling matrix of a provocative social ethics The epistemological in this book is not about the that of knowing but the how the performative dimension of knowing which is affective emotive and an embodied practice The Pentecostal Hypothesis is the capacity to resist conventional wisdom in social actions

Suffering and Evil in Nature Joseph E. Harroff, Jea Sophia Oh, 2021-12-27 Suffering and Evil in Nature Comparative Responses from Ecstatic Naturalism and Healing Cultures edited by Joseph E Harroff and Jea Sophia Oh provides many unique experiments in thinking through the implications of ecstatic naturalism This collection of essays directly addresses the importance of values sustaining cultures of healing and offers a variety of perspectives inducing radical hope requisite for cultivating moral and political imaginings of democracy to come as a regulative ideal Through its invocation of healing cultures the collection foregrounds the significance of the active gerundive and processual nature of ecstatic naturalism as a creative horizon for realizing values of intersubjective flourishing while also highlighting the significance of culture as an always unfinished project of making discursive interpretive and ethical space open for the subaltern and voiceless Each contribution gives voice to the tensions and contradictions felt by living participants in emergent communities of interpretation namely those who risk replacing authoritarian tendencies and fascist prejudices with a faith in future oriented archetypes of healing to make possible truth and reconciliation between oppressor and oppressed victimizers and victims of violence and trauma These essays then let loose the radical hope of healing from suffering in a ceaseless community of communication within a horizon of creative democratic interpretation

Frame of the Marginal Vaishali Naik Reason and Rebellion in Feminism Shashi Deshpande The Sense of Brown José Esteban Muñoz, 2020-08-24 The Sense of Brown is José Esteban Muñoz's treatise on brownness and being as well as his most direct address to queer Latinx studies. In this book, which he was completing at the time of his death, Muñoz examines the work of playwrights Ricardo Bracho and Nilo Cruz, artists Nao Bustamante, Isaac Julien, and Tania Bruguera, and singer José Feliciano among others, arguing for a sense of brownness that is not fixed within the racial and national contours of Latinidad. This sense of brown is not about the individualized brown subject; rather, it demonstrates that for brown peoples, being exists within what Muñoz calls the brown commons, a lifeworld, queer ecology, and form of collectivity. In analyzing minoritarian affect, ethnicity as a structure of feeling, and brown feelings as they emerge in and through art and performance, Muñoz illustrates how the sense of brown serves as the basis for other ways of knowing and being in the world. Dizzy Worms

Michael Holman, 2012-02-15 Charity Mupanga, the resilient and maternal proprietor of Harrods International Bar and Nightspot, faces her toughest challenge in Dizzy Worms, the final novel in Michael Holman's acclaimed trilogy set in the African slum of Kireba. Faced with a Health and Safety closure, Charity has a week to appeal, and the chances of success seem negligible. Elections are imminent, and Kireba is due to become a showcase of President Josiah Nduka's slum rehabilitation program, backed by gullible foreign donors. But before taking on Nduka and the council, she has a promise to keep: to provide a supply of her famous sweet doughballs to a small army of street children as voracious as they are malodorous. Michael Holman uses his witty, satirical pen to brilliant effect in this affectionate portrait of a troubled region, targeting local politicians, western diplomats, foreign donors, and journalists, puncturing pretensions and questioning the philosophy of aid.

Addressing Racism Madonna G. Constantine, Derald Wing Sue, 2006-06-27 Learn to identify and combat unintentional and overt racism. This provocative book identifies and addresses racism in mental health and educational settings, providing proven strategies for overcoming this stubborn barrier to culturally competent practice. While addressing overt forms of racism, the book also explores and sensitizes practitioners to covert and unintentional forms of racism that may be equally detrimental in denying persons of color access to unbiased, high-quality education and mental health care. Despite the dismantling of overt racist policies such as segregated schooling and the implementation of policies aimed at remedying racial inequities such as affirmative action, racism continues to persist in American society. Drs. Madonna Constantine and Derald Wing Sue, two of the leading researchers and advocates for multicultural competence, have collected sixteen thought-provoking and challenging chapters on the many ways that racism can affect a practitioner's interactions in mental health and school settings. These contributions collectively bring to the forefront highly charged issues that need to be discussed but are too often hidden away. The book is divided into four parts: What Do We Know about Racism; Racism in Mental Health Contexts; Racism in Educational Settings; Eradicating Racism: Future Directions. Faced with the responsibility of understanding multiple oppressions and the intersections of racism with sexism, classism, and heterosexism, mental health practitioners and educators must be vigilant of their personal role in perpetuating racism This collected work will help you identify forms of racism both within yourself and the systems you work in and then implement strategies to eliminate them

Homosexuality, Transsexuality, Psychoanalysis and Traditional Judaism Alan Slomowitz, Alison Feit, 2019-03-04

Homosexuality Transsexuality Psychoanalysis and Traditional Judaism explores the often incommensurable and irreconcilable beliefs and understandings of sexuality and gender in the Orthodox Jewish community from psychoanalytic rabbinic feminist and queer perspectives The book explores how seemingly irreconcilable differences might be resolved The book is divided into two separate but related sections The first highlights the divide between the psychoanalytic academic and traditional Orthodox Jewish perspectives on sexual identity and orientation and the acute psychic and social challenges faced by gay and lesbian members of the Orthodox Jewish world The contributors ask us to engage with them in a dialogue that allows for authentic conversation The second section focuses on gender identity especially as experienced by the Orthodox transgender members of the community It also highlights the divide between theories that see gender as fluid and traditional Judaism that sees gender as strictly binary The contributors write about their views and experiences from both sides of the divide They ask us to engage in true authentic dialogue about these complex and crucial emotional and religious challenges Homosexuality Transsexuality Psychoanalysis and Traditional Judaism will be of great interest to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists as well as members and leaders of Jewish communities working with LGBTQ issues
