Understanding World Regional Geography Erin H. Fouberg, William G. Moseley, 2017-12-27 Understanding World Regional Geography UWRG is a course designed to teach students to think and apply geographic concepts long after the course is over Author Erin Fouberg draws from her expertise in geography education and research in student learning to create a product that has a strong pedagogical framework designed to engage students and deepen their understanding of the world by having them DO Geography UWRG includes features that help students learn to read cultural and physical landscapes ask geographic questions apply geographic concepts and make connections It integrates 25 threshold concepts and teaches students how geographers apply these concepts and asks them to apply these concepts themselves This enables them to grasp the complexities of the world and provides them with the knowledge and thinking skills necessary to understanding it UWRG is the first introductory course to integrate ESRI ArcGIS Online thematic maps enabling students to engage with course materials see patterns and answer geographic questions Geography of Time, Place, Movement and Networks, Volume 1 Stanley D. Brunn, 2024-05-23 This book describes the journey concept relating to cultural and social history of Western and non Western worlds By including time journeys negotiated by women racial minorities artists and scholars from the humanities and social natural and physical scientists the book explores time space journeys in personal professional and cultural life and place experiences The sixteen chapters in this book offer new insights into time place worlds in different contexts including history culture astronomy and science fiction The concept is one where science and art worlds intersect in the emerging worlds of the unknown With contributors from different disciplines and countries expanding our understanding of this concept this volume provides a valuable source for disciplinary and interdisciplinary classes and seminars exploring these scholarly frontiers The Arts and Indigenous Knowledge Systems in a Modernized Africa Runette Kruger, Rudi de Lange, Ingrid Stevens, 2018-12-17 This collection derives from a conference held in Pretoria South Africa and discusses issues of indigenous knowledge systems IKS and the arts It presents ideas about how to promote a deeper understanding of IKS within the arts the development of IKS arts research methodologies and the protection and promotion of IKS in the arts Knowledge embedded in song dance folklore design architecture theatre and attire and the visual arts can promote innovation and entrepreneurship and it can improve communication IKS however exists in a post millennium modernizing Africa It is then the concept of post Africanism that would induce one to think along the lines of a globalized cosmopolitan and essentially modernized Africa The book captures leading trends and ideas that could help to protect promote develop and affirm indigenous knowledge and systems whilst also making room for ideas that do not necessarily oppose IKS but encourage the modernization not Westernization of Africa The Human Mosaic Mona Domosh, Terry G. Jordan-Bychkov, Roderick P. Neumann, Patricia L. Price, 2012 Contemporary Issues in Africa's Development Ehimika A. Ifidon, Richard A. Olaniyan, 2018-04-18 This volume reports on the state of crisis in Africa in the early twenty first century Africa on the eve of the independence revolution was the continent of hope and high expectations By the third decade of independence optimism had been replaced by dismay African states had been beset by ethno political squabbles military rule civil wars Islamic and insurgent movements extreme poverty and disease With the ascent of redemocratization in the 1990s and of new pan Africanism derived from the formation of the African Union Africa appeared set to claim its vaunted destiny This book asks with hindsight to the first decade of the twenty first century how real was the renaissance in African life If the dismal African condition is a phase in the historical development of Africa this volume does not see any golden age in the past to which Africa aspires to return There is clearly a continuation and persistence of crisis with an absence of good governance personalisation of state power widespread disease and policy failure in education economy and infrastructural development Although endowed with abundant human and natural resources Africa remains the least developed and most indebted continent Whither then the African Renaissance The methodologies that underpin the contributions in this book are as diverse as the specialisations of the contributors The collection questions ideologically protected assumptions and presumptions presenting Africa as it is because it is only by knowing where Africa truly stands that a proper direction can be charted for it

People, Place, and Attachment in Local Bars John W. McEwen, 2019-10-16 In the United States places of drink are historically linked to community and social interactions and such establishments often possess loyal patrons for whom going to the local bar is a natural and routine part of their daily life In People Place and Attachment in Local Bars John McEwen places drinking establishments at the fore of American geography as containers of material culture and collective history McEwen draws on ethnographic data collected in four local bars in West Baton Rouge Louisiana to present a new unified theory of people place relationships McEwen highlights sense of place place attachment and the concept of rootedness

The Human Mosaic Terry G. Jordan-Bychkov, 2005-08-19 Carrying forward the legacy of original author Terry Jordan Bychkov Mona Domosh and new coauthors Roderick Neumann and Patricia Price offer this thoroughly updated new edition of the acclaimed introduction to the cultural geography of the world today The result is a text that maintains its original distinctive style while addressing contemporary issues and situations that students care about most importantly the continuing phenomenon of globalization The Thematic Approach of The Human Mosaic The Human Mosaic introduces five themes in the opening chapter culture region cultural diffusion cultural ecology cultural interaction and cultural landscape then uses those themes as a framework for the topical chapters that follow Each theme is applied to a variety of geographical topics demography agriculture the city religion language ethnicity politics industry folk and popular culture Through this organization students are able to relate to the most important aspects of cultural geography at every point in the text

Violence in Place, Cultural and Environmental Wounding Amanda Kearney, 2016-11-25 Human life is intimately woven into place Through nations and homelands monuments and sacred sites it becomes the anchorage point for ethnic cultural and national identities Yet it is also place that becomes the battlefield war zone mass grave desecrated site and destroyed landscape in the midst or aftermath of cultural wounding Much attention has been given to the impact of trauma and violence on human lives across generations but what of the spaces in which it occurs How does culturally prescribed violence impact upon place And how do the non human species with whom we coexist also suffer through episodes of conflict and violence By identifying violence in place as a crisis of our times and by encouraging both the witnessing and the diagnosing of harm this book reveals the greater effects of cultural wounding It problematises the habit of separating human life out from the ecologies in which it is held If people and place are bound through kinship whether through necessity and survival or choice and abiding love then wounding is co terminus The harms done to one will impact upon the other Case studies from Australia North and South America Europe and the Pacific illustrate the impact of violence in place while supporting a campaign for methodologies that reveal the fullness of the relational bond between people and place The book will appeal to students and practitioners alike with interests in cultural and human geography anthropology environmental humanities and moral ecology The People, Place, and Space

Reader Jen Jack Gieseeking, William Mangold, Cindi Katz, Setha Low, Susan Saegert, 2014-04-16 The People Place and Space Reader brings together the writings of scholars designers and activists from a variety of fields to make sense of the makings and meanings of the world we inhabit They help us to understand the relationships between people and the environment at all scales and to consider the active roles individuals groups and social structures play in creating the environments in which people live work and play These readings highlight the ways in which space and place are produced through large and small scale social political and economic practices and offer new ways to think about how people engage the environment in multiple and diverse ways Providing an essential resource for students of urban studies geography sociology and many other areas this book brings together important but till now widely dispersed writings across many inter related disciplines Introductions from the editors precede each section introducing the texts demonstrating their significance and outlining the key issues surrounding the topic A companion website PeoplePlaceSpace org extends the work even further by providing an on going series of additional reading lists that cover issues ranging from food security to foreclosure psychiatric spaces to the environments of predator animals Loose-leaf Version for Contemporary Human Geography Mona Domosh, Roderick P.

Neumann, Patricia L. Price, 2014-12-19 More than any other book for the introductory human geography course Contemporary Human Geography shows what geographers actually do how they conduct research develop new insights teach us about the world from a geographers perspective and apply their skills in a wide range of academic and professional pursuits With each chapter organized by five themes mobility region globalization nature culture cultural landscape Contemporary Human Geography introduces students to fascinating topics such as vampire tourism the rise of the LGBT districts texting and language modification and more continually reinforcing the geographers contributions of geographers to our understanding of how we live in the a globalized modern world The authors structure this coverage around specific learning objectives to help students focus on essential concepts and prepare for class discussions assignments and exams

The National Geographical Journal of India ,1990 Cultural Mapping Janet Pillai, 2022-12-08 Cultural mapping is an approach to recording and revealing an integrated picture of cultural character significance and workings of a place The second edition of Janet Pillai s book contains everything you need to know about this process and how to plan and begin your own projects This guide on Cultural Mapping provides an invaluable resource for everyone interested in having a deeper understanding of the unique character and identity of a historic place and its community It provides the user with a clear methodology for unraveling the complex and significant elements that make up any human settlement Step by step procedures outline the processes tools and techniques for collecting and assessing the cultural assets and resources of a given community Several illustrated case applications of cultural mapping from Malaysia and Hong Kong have been included to help demonstrate the application of cultural mapping in tourism conservation revitalisation and education projects This is a remarkable resource which advocates that cultural mapping should be the basis for all urban planning studies to ensure that culturally sensitive and appropriate decisions are made in the planning management and development of small and large historic sites and in place making exercises A must use for policy makers planners cultural advocates and leaders Ar Laurence Loh Director of Arkitek LLA Sdn Bhd and Think City Sdn Bhd Advanced Placement Student Companion to Accompany, Human Geography: Culture, Society, and Space, Sixth Edition James F.
