Elizabeth Fisher, Sidney A. Shapiro

Hurricane Katrina The Failed Response:

Disaster Christopher Cooper, Robert Jeffrey Block, 2006-08-08 In this troubling expose of what went wrong with America's emergency response system after Hurricane Katrina Christopher Cooper and Robert Block draw on exclusive interviews with federal state and local officials to reveal the inexcusable mismanagement and how America is ill equipped to handle large scale emergencies be they floods or fires natural events or terrorist attacks A Failure of Initiative United States. Congress. House. Select Bipartisan Committee to Investigate the Preparation for and Response to Hurricane Katrina, 2006 The results of the official Congressional investigation into the government's preparation for and response to Hurricane Katrina in 2005 'Unacceptable' Walter M. Brasch, 2005-12-07 The emergency management response to Hurricane Katrina revealed more than just a failure of the Federal Emergency Management Agency but systemic problems in all levels of government In Unacceptable award winning journalist Walter M Brasch explores not only the facts of the disaster but WHY the federal response was inefficient PKEMRA Implementation United States. Congress. House. Committee on Homeland Security. Subcommittee on Emergency Communications, Preparedness and Response, 2010 A Failure of Initiative United States. Congress. House. Select Bipartisan Committee to Investigate the Preparation for and Response to Hurricane Katrina, 2006 Administrative Competence Elizabeth Fisher, Sidney A. Shapiro, 2020-10-15 This book by two of the world's leading administrative law scholars reimagines administrative law as the law of public administration by making its competence the focus of administrative law Grounded in extensive interdisciplinary historical and doctrinal analysis Fisher and Shapiro show why understanding both the capacity and authority of expert public administration is crucial to ensure the legitimacy and accountability of the administrative state To address the current precarious state of administrative law they support a new study of the administrative process by an Attorney Generals Committee on Administrative Procedure leading to a revised Administrative Procedure Act APA This book is a must read for anyone interested in administrative law and its reform Transforming Disaster Response William Lester, 2018-07-16 Much of the published work on disaster response has focused on specific disasters highlighting what went wrong Taking a new approach this book explores ways in which transformational leadership principles may be applied to an organization's disaster preparation and response moving the organization away from a competitive or top down approach and toward a more collaborative one Rather than focus on centralizing responsibility with commands emanating from the top author William Lester offers readers a new paradigm with step by step instructions on placing transformative and collaborative systems front and center in order to develop a sustainable disaster response system one that is not centered on a specific leader or time but instead focuses on the changes needed to build a system that can outlive any one leader Implementation plans to move from concept into workable effective strategies that can be used immediately are included Assuming no prior background in either organizational theory or disaster response systems the book offers practical examples and hands on explorations of the responses to Hurricanes

Sandy Harvey Irma and Maria written by experts who know those disasters best delivering important insight into what elements make the best disaster response system A Failure of Initiative, Supplementary Report and Document Annex..., March 16, 2006, 109-2 House Report 109-396 ,2006 Emergency Management and Social Intelligence Charna R. Epstein, Ameya Pawar, Scott. C. Simon, 2014-12-19 For effective preparedness emergency managers must comprehend how a disaster impacts not only the physical infrastructure of the affected community but also the population They must understand how the people interact with one another how they interact with government and how they react to the disaster event In other words they must have social Nomination of Jane Holl Lute United States. American Coup William M. Arkin, 2025-05-01 A stunning exploration of the subtle erosion of freedom in an age of concocted fear and de facto military authority When we think of a military coup the first image that comes to mind is a general standing at a podium with a flag behind him declaring the deposing of elected leaders and the institution of martial law Think again In American Coup William Arkin reveals the desk bound takeover of the highest reaches of government by a coterie of grey men of the national security establishment Operating between the lines of the Constitution this powerful and unelected group fights to save the nation from terror and weapons of mass destruction while at the same time modifying and undermining the very essence of the country Many books are written about secrecy surveillance and government law breaking none so powerfully expose the truth of everyday life in this state of war

The African Diaspora in the United States and Canada at the Dawn of the 21st Century John W. Frazier, Joe T. Darden, Norah F. Henry, 2010-09-01 Offers important new perspectives on the African diaspora in North America Drawing on the work of social scientists from geographic historical sociological and political science perspectives this volume offers new perspectives on the African diaspora in the United States and Canada It has been approximately four centuries since the first Africans set foot in North America and although it is impossible for any text to capture the complete Black experience on the continent the persistent legacy of Black inequality and the winds of dramatic change are inseparable parts of the current African diaspora experience In addition to comparing and contrasting the experiences and geographic patterns of the African diaspora in the United States and Canada the book also explores important distinctions between the experiences of African Americans and those of more recent African and Afro Caribbean immigrants

Unprepared Andrew Lakoff, 2017-08-01 Recent years have witnessed an upsurge in global health emergencies from SARS to pandemic influenza to Ebola to Zika Each of these occurrences has sparked calls for improved health preparedness In Unprepared Andrew Lakoff follows the history of health preparedness from its beginnings in 1950s Cold War civil defense to the early twenty first century when international health authorities carved out a global space for governing potential outbreaks Alert systems and trigger devices now link health authorities government officials and vaccine manufacturers all of whom are concerned with the possibility of a global pandemic Funds have been devoted to cutting edge research on pathogenic organisms and a system of post hoc diagnosis analyzes sites of failed preparedness to find new targets for improvement Yet despite all these developments the project of global health security continues to be unsettled by the prospect of surprise
