Rightwing Extremism: Current Economic and Political Climate Fueling Resurgence in Radicalization and Recruitment

DHS Field Agent Guide: 10 tips for spotting a radical right-winger

1. Subject describes him/herself as "pro-choice" and demonstrates an unhealthy pre-occupation with "saving the lives of babies." Often hallucinates of UVTM's (unviable tissue masses) as if they're real human beings, often deluding him/herself into believing that preventing intact dilation and evacuation (subject may refer to this as "abortion") is "God's will." Approach with extreme caution.
2. Demonstrates an extremely excessive amount of pride in Texas.
3. Has volunteered to "throw the switch" at a number of electric chair criminal executions and often brags about this fact (see #2)
4. Has served overseas or domestically in the U.S. military in operations ordered by then rogue U.S. President Bush, or has provided support for same. May grow "unstable" due to right-wing brainwash techniques that have many troops convinced that their sacrifices in Iraq were futile just because members of Congress said we lost and President Obama said we shouldn't be there.
5. Over-possessive feelings for the United States which leads to illegal immigrant oppression. May make over-the-top statements in a paranoid, selfish fashion, such as "my country," "my flag" or "my wallet."
6. Unhealthy pre-occupation with national debt and tax rates. Members of the radical right suffer from the delusion that the money they have belongs to them. A complete thoughtlessness toward communities and their organizers is common among the radical right.
7. Refers to individual known as "The Nuge" more than three times in a single casual conversation and knows more than five jokes by Larry the Cable Guy.
8. Subject shows extreme irritation when confronted with the fact that if they didn't vote for President Obama, there's a better than 80% chance they're racist.
9. Shows undue concern for financial and physical well-being of their "children" -- a term which is merely radical-right code for future generations of radical right wing activists.
10. Mention the words "tea" or "party" at any point while under surveillance.
