

Chapter 1:2

Determination of Tax

Discussion Questions

I:2-1 a. Gross income is income from taxable sources. Form 1040 combines the results of computations made on several separate schedules. For example, income from a sole proprietorship is reported on Schedule C, where gross income from the business is reduced by related expenses. Only the net income or loss computed on Schedule C is carried to Schedule 1 (and from there to Form 1040). This is procedurally convenient but means gross income is not shown on Form 1040.

b. Gross income is relevant to certain tax determinations. For example, whether an individual is required to file a tax return is based on his or her gross income. As the amount does not necessarily appear on any tax return, it may be necessary to separately make the computation in order to determine whether a dependent is a qualifying relative. pp. I:2-3, I:2-15, and I:2-35.

I:2-2 The term “income” includes all income from whatever source derived, based on principles of economics and/or accounting. Gross income refers only to income from taxable sources; it does not include tax-exempt income. p. I:2-3.

I:2-3 a. A deduction is an amount that is subtracted from gross income (or adjusted gross income), while a credit is an amount that is subtracted from the tax itself.

b. In general, a $200 credit is worth more than a $200 deduction because the credit results in a $200 tax savings. The savings from a deduction is less than 100% of $200, depending on the tax bracket that applies to the taxpayer.

c. If a refundable credit exceeds the taxpayer’s tax liability, the taxpayer will receive a refund equal to the excess. In the case of nonrefundable credits, the taxpayer will not receive a refund, but may be entitled to a carryover or carryback. pp. I:2-4 through I:2-6.

I:2-4 A dependent must be a qualifying child or a qualifying relative.

- A qualifying child must:
 - Be the taxpayer’s (a) child, (b) sibling, or (c) descendent of (a) or (b)
 - Be under 19, a full-time student under 24, or disabled
 - Live with the taxpayer for more than half the year, and
 - Not provide more than half of his or her own support.
- A qualifying relative must:
 - Be related to the taxpayer (or reside in the taxpayer’s home for the entire year)
 - Have gross income less than $5,050 (2024),
 - Receive more than half of his or her support from the taxpayer, and
 - Not be a qualifying child.
