Once upon a time, there lived a poor brahmin without any friends or relatives. He was a miser and begged money for a living. One day, he received a pot full of porridge by a generous person. He hung the earthen pot from the wall and fell asleep staring at it. He drifted into deep sleep and dreamt that there was a famine, and that he exchanged his pot of porridge for a hundred gold coins. He dreamt that he bought a pair of goats and cows with the money, and made more money by trading milk. He also dreamt that a rich merchant offered his daughter's hand in marriage and that he had a kid. He was relaxing at home when a group of kids disturbed him. Imagining that he was scaring them away with a stick, he picked up the nearby stick in his sleep and started waving it around.
