Federica Casarosa, Francesca Gennari, Arianna Rossi, 2025-08-28 This open access volume provides a comprehensive guide to the most pressing challenges arising from the technologies that enable personalized medicine. It brings together theoretical, empirical, and case study based contributions that span across disciplinary boundaries to examine related problems and propose solutions critically. Personalized medicine is the next frontier in scientific public health and commercial advancements. By recognizing the uniqueness of each human body, data driven treatments and digital robotic devices are being increasingly developed to enable patients and medical personnel to benefit from highly accurate and personalized diagnoses and therapies. Healthcare customization is based on predictive, preventive, personalized, and participatory elements, each of which requires an interplay between healthcare systems, medical personnel, patients, as well as bioengineers, economists, regulators, lawyers, and business owners. If the goal of more proactive patient inclusion is to enhance the efficacy of personalized medical interventions, it is also paramount to evaluate whether the adoption of customized solutions is sustainable from both economic and organizational perspectives. Legal norms provide the framework in which the development of new medical devices, the sharing of data for the public good, and the provision of healthcare may occur. This area of research and practice is regulated by a complex mix of norms concerning personal and non personal data, AI governance, cybersecurity, health law, and liability regimes. In ever evolving domains where some regulations still need to be defined, approved, or implemented, researchers and practitioners need guidance to enable the safe by design development of medical technologies. The book is organized in three sections: I Facilitating and Protecting Personalized Medicine, which revolves around the mechanisms that enable the sharing and reuse of health data within the Common European Data Spaces, seeks to address the cybersecurity challenges posed by medical technologies and critically discusses the definition of scientific research in recent legislative efforts; II Scoping Challenges Through the Players in the Personalized Medicine Ecosystem, which gathers varied interdisciplinary insights from scholars and practitioners in the fields of medicine, economics, engineering, education, and compliance; and III Challenges of Personalized Medicine for Liability, which focuses on the challenges that personalized data driven medicine poses for traditional and novel liability regimes. Encyclopedia of

Archival Writers, 1515 - 2015 Luciana Duranti, Patricia C. Franks, 2019-04-26 The Encyclopedia of Archival Writers 1515-2015 is a reference work that includes the profiles of authors of literature about records and archives in the Western world who have shaped the records and archives field over a span of 500 years. The 144 archival writers from 13 countries who are included in this volume were selected by an international advisory board on the basis of their impact on the records and archives profession and discipline, the presence of their publications in educational programs, reading lists, and the frequency of reference to their work. Among the writers included in this volume are Albertino Barisone of Padua 1587-1667, Sir Hilary Jenkinson of England 1882-1961, Adolf Brenneke of Germany 1875-1946, Theodore R Schellenberg of the United States 1903-1970, Robert Henri Bautier of France 1922-2010, Terry Cook of Canada 1947-2014, Vicenta Cortés Alonso of Spain 1925, Eric

Ketelaar of the Netherlands 1944 Aurelio Tanodi of Argentina 1914 2011 Ian Maclean of Australia 1919 2003 and Verne Harris of South Africa 1958 Arranged in alphabetical order each entry includes a biography intellectual contributions and a brief essential bibliography A total of 113 educators professionals and students in the records and archives field 55 of whom are also profiled in this Encyclopedia contributed to this volume There is no other book in any language that focuses on the life and work of authors of records and archives literature In fact there is not easily available information on such writers Thus most entries involved quite a bit of research on dead writers and interviews with the living ones Several living writers supported this work by accepting to author their own entry
