Iris Muller Westermann Book:

The New Lives of Images Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2025-09-30 In this ambitious new work eco philosopher and cultural theorist Adrian Ivakhiv presents an incisive new way of thinking about images and imagination Drawing upon an immense range of materials Ivakhiv reassesses the place of imagination in cultural life analyzing how people have interacted with images in the past and the ways that digital media are profoundly altering these relationships today The book contributes powerfully to the study of visual culture and digital media and provides provocative interpretations of a range of important artists and media movements from the work of photographer Edward Burtynsky the ambitious multi screen installations of John Akomfrah the abstract art of Swedish spiritualist Hilma af Klint and the Afrofuturism of jazz musicians like Sun Ra and poet Alexis Pauline Gumbs to the ever expanding universe of animal videos on YouTube Along the way the book delves into animacy and religious imagery iconophilia and iconoclasm divination and prophecy truthiness and enchantment networks online communities and artificial intelligence the political and affective economies of digital media and the role of utopian futurism in the present climate colonial Anthropocene predicament The result is a vital contribution toward a more empowering conception of the creative imagination and its possibilities in today s emerging digital ecology

Hilma Af Klint Julia Voss, 2022-10-19 A highly anticipated biography of the enigmatic and popular Swedish painter The Swedish painter Hilma af Klint 1862 1944 was forty four years old when she broke with the academic tradition in which she had been trained to produce a body of radical abstract works the likes of which had never been seen before Today it is widely accepted that af Klint was one of the earliest abstract academic painters in Europe But this is only part of her story Not only was she a working female artist she was also an avowed clairvoyant and mystic Like many of the artists at the turn of the twentieth century who developed some version of abstract painting af Klint studied Theosophy which holds that science art and religion are all reflections of an underlying life form that can be harnessed through meditation study and experimentation Well before Kandinsky Mondrian and Malevich declared themselves the inventors of abstraction af Klint was working in a nonrepresentational mode producing a powerful visual language that continues to speak to audiences today The exhibition of her work in 2018 at the Guggenheim Museum in New York City attracted more than 600 000 visitors making it the most attended show in the history of the institution Despite her enormous popularity there has not yet been a biography of af Klint until now Inspired by her first encounter with the artist s work in 2008 Julia Voss set out to learn Swedish and research af Klint s life not only who the artist was but what drove and inspired her The result is a fascinating biography of an artist who is as great as she is enigmatic

Anarchist, Artist, Sufi Mark Sedgwick, 2021-04-08 This book follows the life of Ivan Agu li the artist anarchist and esotericist notable as one of the earliest

Western intellectuals to convert to Islam and to explore Sufism This book explores different aspects of his life and activities revealing each facet of Agu li s complex personality in its own right It then shows how esotericism art and anarchism finally found their fulfillment in Sufi Islam The authors analyze how Agu li s life and conversion show that Islam occupied a more central place in modern European intellectual history than is generally realized His life reflects several major modern intellectual political and cultural trends This book is an important contribution to understanding how he came to Islam the values and influences that informed his life and ultimately the role he played in the modern Western reception of Islam

Eye of the Sixties Judith E. Stein, 2024-05-01 An evocative portrait of one of the most influential and enigmatic American art dealers of the 1960s Barbara Rose The New York Times In 1959 Richard Bellamy was a witty poetry loving beatnik on the fringe of the New York art world By 1965 he was representing Mark di Suvero had been the first to show Andy Warhol s pop art and had introduced the new genre of installation art An eccentric art dealer and founder of the Green Gallery on Fifty Seventh Street Bellamy helped discover many of the innovative successors to the abstract expressionists including Claes Oldenburg James Rosenquist Donald Judd Dan Flavin Walter de Maria and many others But uninterested in anything more than showing the artists he loved Bellamy slowly slid into obscurity while fellow dealers such as Leo Castelli and Sidney Janis capitalized on the stars he helped find Based on decades of research and on hundreds of interviews with Bellamy s artists friends colleagues and lovers Judith E Stein s Eye of the Sixties rescues the legacy of the elusive art dealer and tells the story of a counterculture that became the mainstream Ranging from the Beat orbits of Provincetown to white glove events like Guggenheim s opening gala from Norman Mailer s parties to historic downtown Happenings Richard Bellamy s story is a remarkable window on the art of the twentieth century and the making of a generation s aesthetic Judith E Stein s engrossing impressively researched consistently readable and often entertaining tale restores a crucial figure to his rightful place in the annals of postwar American art Lilly Wei Art in America By using Belamy s unlikely ascent as a prism Ms Stein brings to vibrant life a corner of the culture that was as outrageous as it was visually revolutionary Ann Landi The Wall Street Journal A man of shrewd and impeccable taste Bellamy s role in promoting the often misunderstood art of abstract expressionism pop and minimalism was profound This is an endearing and illuminating work of biography A shadowy figure of the 1960s art world is gloriously revealed Kirkus Reviews

Modern Women Artists in the Nordic Countries, 1900-1960 Kerry Greaves, 2021-04-05 This transnational volume examines innovative women artists who were from or worked in Denmark Finland Greenland Iceland Norway S pmi and Sweden from the emergence of modernism until the feminist movement took shape in the 1960s The book addresses the culturally specific conditions that shaped Nordic artists contributions brings the latest methodological and feminist approaches to bear on Nordic art history and engages a wide international audience through the contributors subject matter and analysis Rather than introducing a new history of rediscovered women artists the book is more concerned with understanding the mechanisms and structures that affected women artists and their work while suggesting alternative ways of constructing women's art histories Artists covered include Else Alfelt Pia Arke Franciska Clausen Jessie Kleemann Hilma af Klint Sonja Ferlov Mancoba Greta Knutson Aase Texmon Rygh Hannah Ryggen J l ana Sveinsd ttir Ellen Thesleff and Astri Aasen The target audience includes scholars working in art history cultural studies feminist studies gender studies curatorial studies Nordic studies postcolonial studies and visual studies

The Light Club Josiah McElheny, 2010-05-15 Paul Scheerbart 1863 1915 was a visionary German novelist theorist poet and artist who made a lasting impression on such icons of modernism as Walter Benjamin Bruno Taut and Walter Gropius Fascinated with the potential of glass architecture Scheerbart's satirical fantasies envisioned an electrified future a world composed entirely of crystalline colored glass In 1912 Scheerbart published The Light Club of Batavia a Novelle about the formation of a club dedicated to building a spa for bathing not in water but in light at the bottom of an abandoned mineshaft Translated here into English for the first time this rare story serves as a point of departure for Josiah McElheny who with an esteemed group of collaborators offers a fascinating array of responses to this enigmatic work The Light Club makes clear that the themes of utopian hope desire and madness in Scheerbart's tale represent a part of modernism's lost project a world based on political and spiritual ideals rather than efficiency and logic In his compelling introduction McElheny describes Scheerbart's life as well as his own enchantment with the writer and he explains the ways in which The Light Club of Batavia inspired him to produce art of uncommon breadth The Light Club also features inspired writings from Gregg Bordowitz and Ulrike M ller Andrea Geyer and Branden W Joseph as well as translations of original texts by and about Scheerbart A unique response by one visionary artist to another The Light Club is an unforgettable examination of what it might mean to see radical potential in absolute illumination

Lee Lozano Jo Applin, 2018-01-01 An illuminating study of an overlooked artist from the 1960s whose work has recently returned to the limelight This is the first in depth study of the idiosyncratic ten year career of Lee Lozano 1930 1999 assuring this important artist a key place in histories of post war art The book charts the entirety of Lozano's production in 1960s New York from her raucous drawings and paintings depicting broken tools genitalia and other body parts to the final exhibition of her spectacular series of abstract Wave Paintings at the Whitney Museum of American Art in 1970 Highly regarded at the time Lozano is now perhaps best known for Dropout Piece 1970 a conceptual artwork and dramatic gesture with which she quit the art world Shortly afterwards she announced she would have no further contact with other women Her dropout and boycott of women lasted until her death by which time she was all but forgotten This book tackles head on the challenges that Lozano poses to art history and especially to feminist art history attending to her failures as well as her successes and arguing that through dead ends and impasses she struggled to forge an alternative mode of living Lee Lozano Not Working looks for the means to think about complex figures like Lozano whose radical politically ambiguous gestures test our assumptions about feminism and the right way to live and work

Theatre and the Threshold of Death Kathleen Gough, 2024-01-25 On the eve of a global pandemic

Kathleen Gough a theatre professor becomes immersed in the lives of five artist mystics each of whom is a pioneer in her field Hildegard of Bingen 1098 1179 the first known musical composer Eleanora Duse 1858 1924 the first modern actor in the Western world Simone Weil 1909 1943 philosopher activist and mystic whom Albert Camus called the only great spirit of our time Marina Abramovic b 1946 the grandmother of performance art and Hilma af Klint 1862 1944 the first known and belatedly acknowledged abstract painter Each time Gough crosses a threshold into their world she is compelled to attend courses seminars and workshops that are simultaneously about dying and healing Curious to learn more about the relationships between art practice dying and healing Gough imagines the five artists as wisdom teachers in a mystery school In a series of eight lectures she turns to performance theory to provide a framework for engaging with the unknown world In Theatre and the Threshold of Death Gough makes a persuasive argument for the world making power of relational thinking in our increasingly polarized age
