Lg Enlighten Messaging Problems:

Divine Revolution Dean Brackley, 2004-09-27 A compelling exploration of one of the central issues if not the central issue facing theology in our time the relation between transcendent salvation and temporal liberation What does the salvation that the church proclaims mean for the poor of the world In Divine Revolution Dean Brackley presents in a comprehensive yet manageable way what Catholic theology has to say about this complex and urgent topic He addresses the historical as well as the systematic dimensions of the question providing insights that point toward an understanding of the issues that challenge conservative and liberal interpretations alike In a work of great daring and clarity Brackley surveys the confusion surrounding the social historical dimension of salvation in Catholic thought He shows the irony of the fact that after 2 000 years what salvation means for the poor in relationship to their concrete plight remains a quaestio disputata for official Magisterial teaching Going deeply into the relationship of salvation and liberation Brackley explores the thought of Maritain Rahner and Gutierrez to demonstrate how the synbolon of the Reign of God that Jesus announces transcends the tired theological distinctions of all sides in the debate Drawing from developments in feminist and Protestant theology as well as contemporary social theory Divine Revolution offers a fresh understanding of what it means to participate in God's revolutionary reign Catholic tradition Brackley argues has great potential to articulate a hope which responds to the suffering of the poor in our time When conventional wisdom says compassion fatigued Americans are tired of hearing about the poor Brackley responds The poor are far more tired of being poor They too would like to move on to other things but they cannot The Northwestern Miller, 1923 Rousseau and the Concept of the General Will Frank Thakurdas, 1976 The Christian Leader, 1925 The Church and Culture Since Vatican II Joseph Gremillion, 1985 Based on the papers and discussions of the Conference on the Church and Culture since Vatican II held at the University of Notre Dame Nov 1983 Includes bibliographical references and index Table of Contents pt 1 The Papers and discussions convergences and perspectives pt 2 Documents of the Church on culture Mekeel's Weekly Stamp News I.
