When Clayton offers her a new commission to paint a portrait of his young niece, Sarah senses that the fascination she's had with the handsome Mr. Gallagher might not be just one-sided. She'd thought he was avoiding her all those missed meetings and opportunities to meet that never quite happened. Clayton Gallagher knows that he shouldn't spend any more time feeding his fascination with the charming, outgoing, and delightfully beautiful artist; eighteen months of pining is enough. But he can't resist her company any more than he can deny his desire for the kind of life and affection he sees portrayed in her art. Emotionally isolated in a cold and unloving family and trapped in a dreary world of duty and responsibility, what will happen to Clayton when Sarah begins to color his world with life, kindness, warmth, love.
