The Light from the Dark Side of the Moon Norman G. Gautreau, 2019-05-21 A remembrance of love in a time of war 92 year old Henry Budge defies most of his family by escaping a rehab hospital to make his way to France for the ceremonies of the 70th observance of D Day Before he dies he hopes to at last address a grief he has allowed to simmer for decades and to rekindle memories of lodie Bedier the French Resistance fighter with whom he fell in love 70 years earlier as a way of confronting his grief at losing her During his return journey he relives events of 1944 being wounded as he parachutes into Normandy falling in love with lodie who nurses him back to health fighting the Germans alongside her and her resistance companions and finally abandoning the war to rescue a group of children from the Holocaust choices that leave Henry at risk of a firing squad for desertion and lodie vulnerable to fatal condemnation from her compatriots When he arrives back in France Henry makes several shocking discoveries that shake the very foundations of the memories he s had of lodie all these years and he is left to wonder about the love he has had for lodie what rests on true memory vs what is based on countless imagined conversations over the decades The Romance of the Grail Fanni Bogdanow, 1966 The Palace Academy of Henry III Robert J.
