Horror as Racism in H. P. Lovecraft John L. Steadman,2024-01-11 Providing a new perspective on Lovecraft s life and work Horror as Racism in H P Lovecraft focuses on the overlap between the writer s personal beliefs and the racist images and narratives in his speculative fiction Building on recent debates about Lovecraft and drawing on the concept of white fragility John Steadman argues that the writer s fiction reflects his feelings of resentment and anger towards non white persons and was used to advocate for his racist xenophobic political beliefs that western civilization was in decline and slavery was justifiable among superior civilizations In making these claims Lovecraft s tales pit humans against extra terrestrial aliens developing a terrifying futuristic vision of the Earth as a plantation planet The familiar image of Lovecraft as a reclusive creative genius and mentor to young writer friends is dismantled through close readings of his fiction and nonfiction including correspondence essays and poetry and examination of his early biography This image is replaced by that of a cruel callous and at times psychotic man a violently vitriolic racist and white supremacist who hated most of the non white races While some will dismiss the author outright and others will read his fiction but ignore the racism Horror as Racism in H P Lovecraft takes a middle ground acknowledging Lovecraft s personal history and heinous intentions it helps readers navigate the author s disturbing biography while also getting a better sense of the stories which remain significant within American science fiction

Lovecraft, a Study in the Fantastic Maurice Lévy,1988 Broader than a thematic study however Lévy s analysis is unique in his use of Lovecraft's work as a model for fantastic writing in general and in his provocative theory as to why Lovecraft wrote the sort of works he did Maurice L. Vye's book is a penetrating analysis of the themes running through the works of H. P. Lovecraft the writer of horror and supernatural fiction Broader than a thematic study however L. Vye's analysis is unique in his use of Lovecraft's work as a model for fantastic writing in general and in his provocative theory as to why Lovecraft wrote the sort of works he did At an early age Lovecraft sloughed off all religious belief and came to adopt a bleak and nihilistic philosophy where humans have no importance in the cosmos but to serve as the playthings of incomprehensible and uncaring forces L. Vye sees Lovecraft's works as an attempt to purge himself of these feelings and to give himself a reason to love in a universe that cares nothing for him or for other human beings in general It is this view of Lovecraft the writer the thinker and the man that sets L. Vye's work apart from any Lovecraft criticism

New Directions in Children's Gothic Anna Jackson, 2017-03-27 Children's literature today is dominated by the gothic mode and it is in children's gothic fictions that we find the implications of cultural change most radically questioned and explored This collection of essays looks at what is happening in the children's Gothic now when traditional monsters have become the heroes when new monsters have come into play when globalisation brings

Harry Potter into China and yaoguai into the children's Gothic and when childhood itself and children's literature as a genre can no longer be thought of as an uncontested space apart from the debates and power struggles of an adult domain. We look in detail at series such as The Mortal Instruments, Twilight, Chaos Walking, The Power of Five, Skulduggery Pleasant and Cirque du Freak at novels about witches and novels about changelings at the Gothic in China, Japan and Oceania and at authors including Celia Rees, Frances Hardinge, Alan Garner and Laini Taylor amongst many others. At a time when the energies and anxieties of children's novels can barely be contained anymore within the genre of children's literature spilling over into YA and adult literature, we need to pay attention. Weird things are happening and they matter. Living with Monsters Yasmine Musharbash, Ilana Gershon, 2023. For every generic type of monster—ghost, demon, vampire, dragon—there are countless locally specific manifestations with their own names, traits, and appearances. Such monsters populate all corners of the globe, haunting their humans wherever they live. Living with Monsters is a collection of fourteen short pieces of ethnographic fiction and a more academically inclined introduction and afterword, presenting a playful, spirited, and engaging look at how people live with their respective monsters around the world. They focus on the nitty-gritty dos and don'ts of how to placate spirits in India, how to domesticate Georgian goblins, how to live with aliens, how to avoid being taken by Anito in Taiwan, while simultaneously illuminating the politics of monster-human relations. In this collection, anthropologists working in fieldsites as diverse as the urban Ghana, the rural US, remote Aboriginal Australia, and the internet present imaginative accounts that demonstrate how thinking with monsters encourages people to contemplate difference, to understand inequality, and to see the world from new angles. Combine monsters with experimental ethnography, and the result is a volume that crackles with creative energy, flouts traditions of ethnographic writing, and pushes anthropology into new terrains.

Yasmine Musharbash is Senior Lecturer and Head of Discipline Anthropology at the School of Archaeology, Anthropology at the Australian National University. She conducts participant observation-based research with Warlpiri people in Central Australia with a particular focus on relations among Warlpiri people on the one hand and between them and non-Indigenous people, fauna, flora, the elements, and monsters on the other. She is the author of Yuendumu (Everyday Aboriginal Studies Press, 2008) and of a number of co-edited volumes, including two about monsters that she co-edited with GH Presterudstuen: Monster Anthropology in Australasia and Beyond Palgrave (MacMillan, 2014) and Monster Anthropology: Ethnographic Explorations of Transforming Social Worlds through Monsters (Routledge, 2020). Ilana Gershon is the Ruth N. Halls professor of anthropology at Indiana University and studies how people use new media to accomplish complicated social tasks, such as breaking up with lovers and hiring new employees. She has published books such as The Breakup (2010, Cornell University Press, 2012) and Down and Out in the New Economy (University of Chicago Press, 2017) and has edited two other volumes of ethnographic fiction on work and animals. She has been a fellow at Stanford's Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences, at Notre Dame's Institute for Advanced Study, and is currently a visiting professor at the University of Helsinki.
