Model answer for the writing task

I think adulthood is the best time of life because you're old enough to make a contribution to society. Adults can act on their beliefs, whether it's through their choice of job or just through the decisions they make about how they live their life.

When you're a teenager, you have more opinions and beliefs than you've ever had before, but not being able to do anything about them is frustrating! I'd like to go to university to study environmental science, and once I've graduated I can actually help to come up with practical solutions.

Being an adult has many other benefits too, of course. You can make your own decisions about what you

Private Fire Matthew James Babcock, 2011-04-18 Matthew J Babcock's Private Fire Robert Francis's Ecopoetry and Prose is an examination of the life and work of one of America's most intriguing but tragically obscure writers Babcock uses his own personal relationship Robert Francis's work which emphasizes conservation and connectedness to our natural surroundings to illuminate both overtones and nuances that are undoubtedly useful to those interested in poetry and ecology Babcock begins with a brief biographical section intended to set the tone for readers previously unfamiliar with Robert Francis and then continues into an analysis of the influence of Emily Dickinson and Robert Frost on Francis's work Starting in Chapter Three Private Fire shifts into the realm of literary analysis and discusses various angles of Francis's work from representations of gender and sexual identity prose contributions both fiction and non fiction religion and politics to themes of conservation place making experimental poetic styles and asceticism finishing with a discussion of Francis's only long narrative poem Valhalla This poem joins other prophetic works in musing upon environmental apocalypticism Matthew J Babcock finishes this detailed and thoughtful volume with concluding meditations that situate Robert Francis with his contemporaries helping readers to locate him historically and contextually amongst other 20th century writers By using biography and literary theory as the lens through which one interprets Francis's work Private Fire Robert Francis's Ecopoetry and Prose successfully navigates the literary and cultural environment surrounding a poet who himself was so connected with the world around him A Life with Mary Shelley Barbara Johnson, 2014-07-16 In 1980 deconstructive and psychoanalytic literary theorist Barbara Johnson wrote an essay on Mary Shelley for a colloquium on the writings of Jacques Derrida The essay marked the beginning of Johnson's lifelong interest in Shelley as well as her first foray into the field of women's studies one of whose commitments was the rediscovery and analysis of works by women writers previously excluded from the academic canon Indeed the last book Johnson completed before her death was Mary Shelley and Her Circle published here for the first time Shelley was thus the subject for Johnson's beginning in feminist criticism and also for her end It is surprising to recall that when Johnson wrote her essay only two of Shelley's novels were in print critics and scholars having mostly dismissed her writing as inferior and her career as a side effect of her famous husband's Inspired by groundbreaking feminist scholarship of the seventies Johnson came to pen yet more essays on Shelley over the course of a brilliant but tragically foreshortened career So much of what we know and think about Mary Shelley today is due to her and a handful of scholars working just decades ago In this volume Judith Butler and Shoshana Felman have united all of Johnson's published and unpublished work on Shelley alongside their own new insightful pieces of criticism and those of two other peers and fellow pioneers in feminist theory Mary Wilson Carpenter and Cathy Caruth The book thus evolves as a conversation amongst key scholars of shared intellectual inclinations while closing the circle on Johnson's life and her own fascination with the life and circle of another woman writer who of course also happened to be the daughter of a founder of modern feminism A Companion to Australian Aboriginal Literature Belinda Wheeler, 2013 This international collection of eleven original essays on Australian Aboriginal literature provides a comprehensive critical companion that contextualizes the Aboriginal canon for scholars researchers students and general readers A Glossary of Literary and Cultural Theory Peter Brooker, 2016-12-08 The Glossary of Literary and Cultural Theory provides researchers and students with an up to date guide through the vibrant and changing debates in Literary and Cultural Studies In a field where meanings are frequently complex and ambiguous this text is remarkable for its clarity and usefulness This third edition includes 17 entirely new entries and updates to more than a dozen others which address key concepts and contemporary positions in both literary and cultural theory New entries include Actor Network Theory Anthropocene Ecocriticism Digital Humanities Postcapitalism World Literature Contra Instrumentalism

Lawrence Venuti, 2019-07-01 Contra Instrumentalism questions the long accepted notion that translation reproduces or transfers an invariant contained in or caused by the source text This instrumental model of translation has dominated translation theory and commentary for more than two millennia and its influence can be seen today in elite and popular cultures in academic institutions and in publishing in scholarly monographs and in literary journalism in the most rarefied theoretical discourses and in the most commonly used clichés Contra Instrumentalism aims to end the dominance of instrumentalism by showing how it grossly oversimplifies translation practice and fosters an illusion of immediate access to source texts Lawrence Venuti asserts that all translation is an interpretive act that necessarily entails ethical responsibilities and political commitments Venuti argues that a hermeneutic model offers a more comprehensive and incisive understanding of translation that enables an appreciation of not only the creative and scholarly aspects of what a translator does but also the crucial role translation plays in the cultural and social institutions that shape human life
