Lost Girl Found Leah Bassoff, Laura DeLuca, 2014-01-24 In war torn Sudan a girl must make heart rending choices as she fights for survival and a chance at a future This short quickly paced narrative will stay with readers for the rest of their lives School Library Journali STARRED REVIEW Moving and necessary Kirkus STARRED REVIEW For Poni life in her small village in southern Sudan is simple and complicated at the same time Stay in school Beat up any boy who tries to show attention Watch out for the dangers in the river But then the war comes And when soldiers arrive in her village and bombs begin to rain from the sky there is only one thing for Poni to do Run Poni runs for her life and alongside thousands of refugees she must then make a long dusty trek across the east African countryside Driven by the sheer will to survive Poni finds her way to the Kakuma refugee camp in Kenya where she hopes to be reunited with her family And if she is lucky she will one day be able to convince the authorities that she is worthy to go to the land of opportunity But the misery in Kakuma is almost overwhelming and sooner than Poni could have imagined she is on the run again With single minded determination Poni survives hell and back but she cannot escape the war s devastating psychological effects or her survivor s guilt In a heartbreaking final twist Poni finds her mother just as she is about to leave for America forcing her to make the hardest decision of all Key Text Features map historical note timeline glossary references Correlates to the Common Core State Standards in English Language Arts CCSS ELA LITERACY RL 6 3 Describe how a particular story s or drama s plot unfolds in a series of episodes as well as how the characters respond or change as the plot moves toward a resolution CCSS ELA LITERACY RL 6 6 Explain how an author develops the point of view of the narrator or speaker in a text Lost Girls

Graham Wilson, 2015-04-01 Four passports are found of girls who vanished in Australia The girl who found them has disappeared too Who are these girls Where have they gone A diary and search in Australia and across the world give tiny glimpses and fragments but their stories remain elusive The police search friends and families search and grieve in alternate measure but five girls remain gone their fate unknown Anne is wracked by guilt at her failure to save her friend Susan who vanished one night soon after her release from jail The evidence suggests she has returned to the place where she and her lover parted she chose him and the crocodiles over life She was in advanced pregnancy with twins and so three people are gone Anne has her friend s story her voice on a tape is the last fragment left to her of a vanished existence She must tell this story so that the world can know of this lovely brave girl who seems forever lost And the families of the other four girls want their stories told too She has the man s diary which tells parts but there is much that makes no sense It reveals another shadowy girl who may have gone too She travels to the places from where they have come and were last seen in search of answers She faithfully records each story five or even six lost girls each girl gone nobody knows where As she searches patterns emerge which help to explain the why and some of the how but not where they are now Almost certainly some are dead but could some still survive She is determined not to surrender all hope that at least one or two may yet be found alive

After a year nothing has been found She must put it behind her and try to get on with her own life but guilt and hope keep driving her on searching still
