

Tues. Eve.

Dear Warren,

The radio is playing "If I Could Be With You One Hour Tonight." Guess I shouldn't but I do somehow. Frankly I don't know what has come over me. All I know is that I want to be with you. Even after what you told me last mite I want to see you. Take a rain check on that cup of coffee, and I wish I could have it before I ~~left~~ leave this part of the U. S. & before you leave. After all I don't think you are going to stay home anyway. Why does things like this have to happen I keep asking myself. Maybe it's one of these milestones on this life. Anyway drop me a line - at the Mc Beebe - if we don't get a room there we'll stop & collect our mail since it's we left it as a forwarding address!

Love, Pat

Love Letter Stephen E. Price, 2014-05 Love Letter for a Japanese War Bride is Stephen E Price's memoir of his eternal love for his first wife Ryuko Set primarily in postwar Japan the story provides a window into a new world one that spawned cultural diversity but one that was largely unprepared for and unaccepting of it The tale chronicles the lover's perseverance as they struggle with both the US and Japanese governments to gain permission to marry The narrative is woven into fabrics of cultures traditions attitudes language and history some of which may be unfamiliar but all of which is captivating Above all the unending and redemptive romance in this story captures the purest essence of love with all its twists and turns joys and sorrows highs and lows and culminates in a tragic yet transcendent ending A remarkable memoir and love letter that rings true on every page An intimate and heartbreaking story beautifully told I can think of no other work about Japan and America that reveals more poignantly how love and trust can bridge race and culture even where the odds seem so formidably against this John W Dower Ford International Professor of History Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Pulitzer Prize winning author of Embracing Defeat Japan in the Wake of World War II
