Gradual Release of Responsibility – Independent Instructional Approach

Look-For

Independent Approach: "Student Does, Teacher Observes"

Beginning:
The Teacher: • Review with students (e.g., reading logs) • Goal Setting (task explained) with focussed instruction • Explicitly teaching the strategies that students will use during the independent session • Book Talks • Genre Wheel • Get to know the students • Use data • Likes vs. Dislikes • Entry point variable for students • Create "Safe" environment • Variety of genres	The Students: • Look through reading logs to look for trends and reading level • Student share learning goal • Learning about Independent Reading and expectations during Independent Reading • Set-up their work areas • Routines in place are used
Middle:
The Teacher: • Conferences with students – goal setting • Ask questions to students • Assess • Ask students to reflect on their reading • Reading log and record of their thoughts, etc. (opinions of their reading) • Shared resources that might be interesting to students (based on reading surveys/ conferences held in the beginning)	The Students: • Share opinions and thoughts • Listen to others read • Articulate different strategies used • Reading and applying the strategies learned in class • Conferencing with teacher
End:
The Teacher: • Teacher does guided reading with students • Conference with students • Assess • Reflecting and Assessing to meet the needs of students to move each student forward • "Tracking" and anecdotal notes	The Students: • Students do book study • Sharing their learning • Interests in a variety of genres • Reflect on which strategies they used • Setting goals for reading (next steps)
Pre-Planning:
• First 20 Days • Analyze data • Reading resources – varied and cross-curricular • Good knowledge of students • 5 finger rule • Reading comprehension strategies lessons taught during Modelled/Shared/Guided

Using Data for Continuous Improvement in Educator Preparation Linda McKee,Sylvia Read,Debbie Rickey,2024-03-25 Using Data for Continuous Improvement in Educator Preparation provides case studies that illuminate and contextualize the ways in which educator preparation programs determine the data they need to improve collect data analyze data share data with stakeholders and close the loop by making focused improvements based on the data Educator preparation programs operate in a wide range of contexts that have different requirements e g state mandated measures different affordances and different needs This text focuses on not only the stories of how data is collected analyzed and used for improvement but also on how stakeholders are impacted by the continuous improvement process In the editors work with accreditation and educator preparation program evaluation they noticed a variety of approaches to collecting analyzing and using data for program improvement Often this intense work with data goes unnoticed and unappreciated because it is done in the service of accreditation that once completed does not reach an audience outside of the institution and the accreditation agency Using Data for Continuous Improvement in Educator Preparation solves this problem by shedding light on this important work This volume inaugurates the AAQEP Program Evaluation in Education Series Perfect for courses such as Methods of Program Evaluation Teacher Education Improvement Science
