A Case Study of Zimbabwean Refugee Children Lawrence Meda,2017-06-27 This study is a presentation of Zimbabwean refugee learner experiences Children escaped political persecution and economic problems which affected Zimbabwe in the year 2008 Many of these children were abused and witnessed traumatic experiences their close relatives and neighbours being executed in cold blood This study was guided by three critical questions i who are the Zimbabwean refugee learners ii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners migration experiences and iii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners school experiences The study employed Bronfenbrenner s Social Ecological Model as its overarching theoretical framework Each stage of the refugee experience was described at each point in time     The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja,Meshach B. Ogunniyi,2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next     History Questions, Selected from Papers Set at Civil Service Examinations Great Britain.
