Report on the Activity of the Committee on Energy and Commerce for the ... Congress United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce, 2007

Abuse and Violence Towards Young Children Roy Evans, 2017-10-02 Levels of violence abuse and neglect in early childhood are reported internationally as having reached epidemic proportions The prevalence of all forms of violence to children has been difficult to establish particularly in low and middle income countries However even in countries with a high GDP the sexual abuse of children and young people by predatory adults may continue undetected for decades In parts of Africa young children are mutilated and killed for religious reasons Physical beatings that injure and break bones are still common in the Western world Pornography and sexual abuse involving young children is propagated worldwide through the internet The prevention of this violence will require substantial shifts in parental and public attitudes to children and the development and support of national systems of preventive legislation The last 20 years has seen the emergence of a body of material which interrogates early childhood violence and neglect in a wider range of global settings particularly those countries with a low GDP This book aims to highlight important features of national and international initiatives which are rooted in findings from systematic research The continued abuse and neglect of children has been attributed to social acceptance not understanding the importance of reporting abuse and the limitations of child welfare systems This book will be of interest to practitioners in health care education and social work services as well as field workers implementing programmes to address all forms of abuse at family community and national level This book was originally published as a special issue of Early Child Development and Care

Sex Offenders Fabian M. Saleh, John M. Bradford, Dr. John Bradford, Daniel J. Brodsky, 2021 In his annual lecture to second year medical students Dr Fred Berlin describes an interview

he had early in his career with a man whom he was evaluating following the man's arrest for child sexual abuse. Halfway through the interview the arrested man interrupted Dr Berlin's questions and said 'You know Doctor your society takes a newborn baby boy, gathers family and friends, takes a knife and without any anesthesia cuts skin off the tip of his penis. This is accepted as a religious act. I bend over and kiss that same penis and I am arrested as a child sexual abuser. Can you explain that to me?' Berlin 2000. Don't Touch!, Science Under Siege.

Kendrick Frazier, Science Under Siege is a welcome antidote to the profound science illiteracy that today permeates American pop culture and the press. NEIL deGRASSE TYSON, Astrophysicist and author of The Sky Is Not the Limit and The Pluto Files. An entertaining and eye-opening collection of essays that advance the battle against ignorance and superstition. STEVEN PINKER, Harvard College Professor of Psychology, Harvard University, Author of How the Mind Works and The Stuff of Thought. For more than thirty years The Skeptical Inquirer has steadfastly championed science and reason and been the leading voice for reliable scientific examination of the paranormal and other questionable claims popularized by the media and mass culture. In this new collection of outstanding recent articles, editor Kendrick Frazier has selected some of the best writing on topics of current interest. Among the highlights are 'A Skeptical Look at September 11th' which prompted a deluge of responses, many angry, and was selected by Richard Dawkins for the Best Science and Nature Writing of 2003; Carl Sagan's final question and answer piece on the topic of science and skeptical inquiry; Ann Druyan's beautifully expressed 'Science, Religion, Wonder and Awe'; NASA scientist Stuart Jordan's excellent appraisal of the scientific evidence for global warming which prompted much critical response and led to another follow-up article; Five articles on the evolution vs intelligent design controversy; Two physicians' articles that strongly defend the value of vaccinations and critique the anti-vaccination movement. Other distinguished contributors include Mario Bunge, Martin Gardner, Ray Hyman, Paul Kurtz, Chris Mooney, Joe Nickell, Stephen Pinker and many others. This excellent collection of stimulating articles exploring science and skeptical inquiry, public controversies and investigating pseudoscientific claims is a must for scientists, educators, skeptics and everyone concerned about scientific literacy. Kendrick Frazier, Albuquerque, NM is editor of The Skeptical Inquirer, former editor of Science News and the editor of four previous collections including Encounters with the Paranormal and Science Confronts the Paranormal. He is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

The Development of Child Protection Law and Policy Kieran Walsh, 2020-04-02. This book examines how child protection law has been shaped by the transition to late modernity and how it copes with the ever-changing concept of risk. The book traces the evolution of the contemporary child protection system through historical changes, assessing the factors that have influenced the development of legal responses to abuse over a 130-year period. It does so by focussing on the Republic of Ireland where child protection has become emblematic of wider social change. The work draws on a wide range of primary and secondary sources including legislation, case law and official and media reports of child protection inquiries. It also utilises insights developed through an extensive examination of parliamentary debates on child protection matters These materials are assessed through the lens of critical discourse analysis to explore the relationship between law social policy and social theory as they effect child protection While the book utilises primarily Irish sources this multidisciplinary approach ensures the argument has international applicability The book will be a valuable resource for all those with an interest in the development of child protection law
