Motivation and Emotion in Learning and Teaching across Educational Contexts Gerda Hagenauer, Rebecca Lazarides, Hanna Järvenoja, 2023-11-28. Motivation and Emotion in Learning and Teaching across Educational Contexts brings together current theoretical and methodological perspectives as well as examples of empirical implementations from leading international researchers focusing on the context specificity and situatedness of their core theories in motivation and emotion. The book is compiled of two main sections. Section I covers theoretical reflections and perspectives on the main theories on emotion and motivation in learning and teaching and their transferability across different educational contexts, illustrated with empirical examples. Section II addresses the methodological reflections and perspectives on the methodology that is needed to address the complexity and context specificity of motivation and emotion. In addition to general reflections and perspectives regarding methodology, concrete empirical examples are provided. All cutting-edge chapters include current empirical studies on emotions and motivation in learning and teaching across different contexts, age groups, domains, countries, etc., making them applicable and relevant to a wide range of contexts and settings. This high-quality volume with contributions from leading international experts will be an essential resource for researchers, students, and teacher trainers interested in the vital role that motivation and emotions can play in education.

International Handbook of Emotions in Education Reinhard Pekrun, Lisa Linnenbrink-Garcia, 2014-04-16. For more than a decade, there has been growing interest and research on the pivotal role of emotions in educational settings. This ground-breaking handbook is the first to highlight this emerging field of research and to describe in detail the ways in which emotions affect learning and instruction in the classroom, as well as students and teachers' development and well-being. Informed by research from a number of related fields, the handbook includes four sections. Section I focuses on fundamental principles of emotion, including the interplay among emotion, cognition, and motivation; the regulation of emotion; and emotional intelligence. Section II examines emotions and emotion regulation in classroom settings, addressing specific emotions: enjoyment, interest, curiosity, pride, anxiety, confusion, shame, and boredom, as well as social-emotional learning programs. Section III highlights research on emotions in academic content domains: mathematics, science, and reading/writing. The final section examines the various methodological approaches to studying emotions in educational settings. With work from leading international experts across disciplines, this
